Article 3. Independent and represented political campaign participants

1. Political campaign participants may be independent and represented by the right to receive donations and incur political campaign expenditure.

*2. The following may be registered only as an independent political campaign participant:

- 1) a political party;
- 2) a potential candidate;
- 3) a self-nominated candidate;
- 4) referendum initiators;
- 5) referendum opponents.

3. A candidate nominated by a political party in a single-member constituency in elections to the Seimas or a list of candidates nominated by a political party in elections to municipal councils or to the European Parliament (hereinafter referred to as a “candidate” or a “list of candidates”) may be registered as an independent political campaign participant, where there is a proposal (application) of the political party which has nominated them.

4. The following shall be registered as a represented political campaign participant:

- 1) a candidate entered on the list of candidates;
- 2) a candidate or a list of candidates, in the absence of a proposal (application) of the political party which nominated them for registration as an independent political campaign participant.

5. The Central Electoral Committee shall register independent political campaign participants, post on its website a list of registered political campaign participants and persons whose registration as political campaign participants has been refused.

6. The persons specified in paragraphs 2 and 3 of this Article may accept donations and assume property obligations relating to political campaign expenditure only from the date of their registration as independent political campaign participants and posting on the website of the Central Electoral Commission.

7. Lists of represented political campaign participants may be made public by a political party on behalf and in the interest of which they act, or by the Central Electoral Commission at the request of such a party.

Note. To recognise that paragraph 2 of Article 3 of the Law of the Republic of Lithuania on Funding of, and Control Over Funding of, Political Parties and Political Campaigns (the version of 18 May 2010) is in conflict with paragraph 2 of Article 119 of the Constitution of the Republic of Lithuania in so far as the proportional system of elections to municipal councils, which is the only system chosen by a legislator, does not establish that independent political campaign participants may be not only political parties, but also other collective entities who meet the requirements laid down by the legislator and whose members may be permanent residents of the administrative units of the territory of the Republic of Lithuania.*

Article 4. Political campaign period stages

1. A political campaign period shall consist of the following stages: an election (referendum) campaigning stage and a final (statements) stage.

2. An election (referendum) campaigning stage shall be a constituent stage of the political campaign period beginning when an election date is announced in accordance with the procedure laid down by the law and ending when the statutory period of time, during which election campaigning is prohibited, begins. During the run-off voting the said stage shall also comprise a period from the end of the prohibition of election campaigning until the beginning of the prohibition of campaigning for run-off votes. A referendum campaigning stage shall begin when a citizens’ initiative group for a referendum is registered at the Central Electoral Commission or a motion is submitted to the Seimas by a group of Seimas members to call a referendum and shall end when a time limit set by the Law of the Republic of Lithuania on Referendums, during which referendum campaigning is prohibited, begins.

3. A final (statements) stage shall be a constituent stage of the political campaign period beginning when the final results of the election (rerun election) or the referendum are proclaimed and ending 100 days after the date of proclamation of the final results of the election (run-off election) or the referendum.

Article 5. Registration of a natural person or a political party as an independent political campaign participant

*1. The Central Electoral Commission shall begin accepting applications of the natural persons and political parties referred to in paragraphs 2 and 3 of Article 3 of this Law to register them as independent political campaign participants upon the commencement of the political campaign period and shall finish accepting the said applications on the date (inclusive) when, pursuant to the relevant laws, the submission of application documents begins. In any case the time limit during which these persons shall be entitled to apply to the Central Electoral Commission to be registered as independent political campaign participants may not be shorter than ten working days.

2. Persons wishing to be register as independent political campaign participants must have an agreement with the political campaign treasurer concluded and have an account with a bank registered in the Republic of Lithuania which will be used as a political campaign account.

3. A political party wishing to be registered, and to register a candidate or a list of candidates nominated by it, as an independent political campaign participant:

1) must submit to the Central Electoral Commission an application to be registered, and may submit to it a proposal (application) to register a candidate or a list of candidates nominated by it, as an independent political campaign participant;

2) must, in accordance with the procedure laid down by this Law, submit to the Central Electoral Commission a copy of the property trust agreement with the political campaign treasurer signed by the person authorised by the political party and may submit a copy of the contract with the political campaign auditing firm;

*3) must submit to the Central Electoral Commission the document confirming that the political party has a bank account which will be used as a political campaign account, and the bank statement issued not earlier than three working days before submission that there are no funds in this account;

4) if a proposal (application) to register a candidate or a list of candidates as an independent political campaign participant has been submitted, the Central Electoral Commission must be provided with a copy of the relevant agreement with his political campaign treasurer and the document confirming the existence of a bank account which will be used as a political campaign account as well as the bank statement that there are no funds in this account; a copy of the contract with the political campaign auditing firm may also be submitted to the Central Electoral Commission;

5) may submit a list of represented political campaign participants;

*4. A natural person who wishes to be registered as an independent political campaign participant must submit to the Central Electoral Commission the following:

- 1) an application for registration as an independent political campaign participant;
- 2) his (coordinator's of the initiative group for a referendum) identification document;
- 3) a copy of the property trust agreement with the political campaign treasurer, signed in accordance with the procedure laid down by this Law, and may submit a copy of the contract with the political campaign auditing firm;

- 4) an identification document of the treasurer;

- 5) the document confirming that a bank account has been opened in his name which will be used as a political campaign account, and the bank statement issued not earlier than three working days before submission that there are no funds in this account;

*5. Repealed as of 30 October 2010.

6. A decision on registration as an independent participant of the political campaign shall be taken by the Chairman of the Central Electoral Commission or the Commission member authorised by him not later than within 3 working days from the date of the receipt of all the documents referred to in this Article.

7. Refusal to register a person as an independent political campaign participant must be justified. If a person does not agree with the adopted decision, he shall have the right to appeal against the said decision to the Central Electoral Commission. The Central Electoral Commission must examine the decision within 3 working days. The decision of the Central Electoral Commission may be appealed against to the Supreme Administrative Court of Lithuania not later than within five working days from its adoption.

8. The following shall be announced on the website of the Central Electoral Commission:

- 1) the name or the forename and surname of an independent political campaign participant, its/his status in political campaign (potential candidate, candidate, referendum initiator or opponent), contact phone number, e-mail address;

- 2) the forename, surname, telephone number, e-mail address of the political campaign treasurer;

- 3) the name, code, telephone, e-mail address of the political campaign auditing firm;

- 4) political campaign participants represented by the political party and the spending limits set for them by the political party, if so requested by this political party.

Note. This Law shall not apply to the political campaigns which began prior to the entry into force of this Law.*

Article 6. Loss of the status of an independent political campaign participant

1. A political party shall forfeit the status of an independent political campaign participant in the following cases:

- 1) at the request of the political party;

- 2) upon imposition of a penalty on the political party under the court sentence (during the period of execution of the sentence);

- 3) upon revocation of the registration of all candidates or a list of candidates (lists of candidates) nominated by the political party;

- 4) when the party ceases to exist;

- 5) when the Central Electoral Commission revokes the registration of the political party as an independent political campaign participant because of gross violations of this Law.

2. Any other independent political campaign participant shall forfeit the status of an independent political campaign participant in the following cases:

- 1) at the request of the political campaign participant;
- 2) on the expiration of the time limit set in electoral laws for registration of candidates, a potential candidate has failed to be registered as a candidate;
- 3) upon revocation of candidate's registration;
- 4) in the case of the death of the political campaign participant;
- 5) when the Central Electoral Commission revokes the registration of an independent political campaign participant because of gross violations of this Law not later than 15 days before the election or referendum date.

3. From the moment of entry into force of the decision on the forfeiture of the status of the independent political campaign participant, the independent political campaign participants who have forfeited the status of the political campaign participant shall not have the right to accept the donations referred to in Article 10 of this Law to fund the political campaign and to acquire obligations related to the political campaign. Forfeiture of the status of the political campaign participant shall not excuse from the duty to fulfil the obligations, arising from this and other laws, of the person who has forfeited the status of the political campaign participant.

4. The decisions of the Central Electoral Commission specified in subparagraph 5 of paragraph 1 and subparagraph 5 of paragraph 2 of this Article may be appealed against to the Supreme Administrative Court of Lithuania within five working days from the adoption thereof. An appeal must be investigated not later than within 48 hours of the receipt thereof.

CHAPTER TWO

- 6) loans for the political party by the banks registered in the Republic of Lithuania;
- 7) interest on the funds kept in the bank account;
- 8) an amount equal to one per cent of the annual income tax paid by a Lithuanian resident who voluntarily allocates the said amount for the political campaign;

4. Statutes of the political party shall fix the amount of the membership fee, the procedure of payment and use thereof. Membership fees shall be as follows:

- 1) an initial membership fee;
- 2) a periodic membership fee.

5. The statutes of the party may set other membership fees which are not specified in paragraph 4 of this Article.

6. Funds of the political party received from the sources specified in paragraph 3 of this Article, except subparagraph 2 of paragraph 3 of this Article, shall be kept in the current bank account of the political party.

7. Political parties must keep the state budget appropriations received in accordance with the procedure laid down in Articles 15 and 16 of this Law in the account of state budget appropriations, except for the cases when the said funds are used to finance the political campaign of the political party.

8. Sources of funding of political campaign of the political party shall be as follows:

1) funds of the political party received from the sources of funding of the political party and used to finance political campaigns of the party, lists of candidates nominated by the party and candidates nominated by the party;

2) donations for political campaign to the political party during the political campaign period, given by natural persons who under this Law have the right to donate;

3) loans received by the political party from the banks registered in the Republic of Lithuania during the political campaign period;

4) interest on the funds kept in the political campaign account;

9. Political parties must keep funds designated to finance political campaign in the political campaign account. No interim protection measures may be applied in respect of the political campaign account.

10. Obligations discharged by the guarantor for the political party to the banks registered in the Republic of Lithuania shall not be regarded as the source of political campaign funding.

11. It shall be prohibited to finance political parties or political campaigns of political parties with the funds which are not specified in this Article.

Article 8. Sources of funding of political campaigns of other independent political campaign participants (with the exception of political parties)

1. Political campaigns of other independent political campaign participants (with the exception of political parties) shall be funded:

1) with donations of natural persons who under this Law have the right to donate and donations of political parties to candidates, lists of candidates or political campaigns of referendums;

2) with own (personal) funds;

3) interest on the funds kept in the political campaign account.

2. Funds designated to finance political campaign must be kept in the political campaign account. No interim protection measures may be applied in respect of the political campaign account.

3. It shall be prohibited to finance other independent political campaign participants (with the exception of political parties) with the funds which are not specified in this Article.

Article 9. Source of funding of represented political campaign participants

Political campaigns of represented political campaign participants shall be financed with funds of the political party.

Article 10. Donations

1. Independent political campaign participants, registered in accordance with the procedure laid down by this Law, shall enjoy the right to accept donations specified in this Law.

2. One natural person, referred to in Article 12 of this Law, may, during a political campaign, donate for each independent political campaign participant a donation which does not exceed the amount of 10 average monthly earnings valid in the fourth quarter of the previous calendar year (hereinafter referred to as the “AMEs”). In order to fund his own political campaign a candidate in a single-member constituency and a referendum initiator may donate a donation which does not exceed the amount of 20 AMEs. During a calendar year the total amount of donations by one natural person for independent political campaign participants may not exceed 10 per cent of the amount of the annual income declared by the natural person for the previous calendar year.

3. Having donated a donation to a political campaign participant, a natural person must declare his assets and income in accordance with the procedure laid down by the law.

4. Cash donations of natural persons that exceed LTL 1 000 must be donated only by bank transfer. A political campaign treasurer shall transfer to the political campaign account the cash donations of natural persons for the political campaign, received not by bank transfer, not later than the next day after the receipt of the donation.

5. The identity of all donating natural persons must be made public. Not later than within 10 days from the day of the receipt of a donation the political campaign treasurer shall announce the name, surname of a donor-natural person as well as the name of the municipality in which he resides on the public list of donors, placed on the website of the Central Electoral Commission.

6. A donation sheet must be filled in: when accepting a cash donation – on the day of transfer–acceptance of the donation and when accepting a non-cash donation – within five working days from the day of receipt of the donation. Donation sheets must indicate the value of cash donations, non-monetary donation and its market value, the name and surname, personal number of the donor-natural person as well as the name of the municipality in which he resides. Donation sheets shall be drawn up in three copies, the first copy shall be given to the donor, the second – to the Central Electoral Commission and the third copy shall be left with the beneficiary.

7. It shall be taken that a donation has been accepted when the political campaign treasurer, upon verifying if the received donation satisfies the requirements of this Law, records the donation and, if the monetary donation or non-monetary donation is accepted, hands in (sends) a donation sheet to the donor.

8. The procedure for appraising non-monetary donations and estimating their fair value shall be laid down by the Government or an institution authorised by it.

9. Upon the end of the election (referendum) campaigning stage it shall be prohibited to accept donations for political campaign.

10. A political campaign participant shall not have the right to use for funding the political campaign the received monetary donations which are not entered on the accounting records of the political campaign funding, as well as the donations specified in paragraph 6 of this Article if the political campaign treasurer has not filled the donation sheet out.

11. Donations of natural persons which are less than LTL 40 for an independent political campaign participant during the political campaign may be applied a simplified procedure for accepting donations, accounting for them and making public the identity of donors. Such a procedure shall be laid down by the Government of the Republic of Lithuania. In compliance with the procedure laid down by the Government of the Republic of Lithuania paragraphs 3, 4, 5, 6, 7 and 10 of Article 10 of this Law shall not apply to the acceptance and accounting of such donations as well as the disclosing of the identity of donors. In the case of political campaign of a political campaign participant, not more than 10 per cent of the fixed maximum permitted amount of political campaign expenses may be funded with the donations provided for in this paragraph. A political campaign participant who has received in accordance with the procedure laid down by this paragraph the donations exceeding the limit set in this paragraph shall transfer such donations to the state budget before the submission of a political campaign funding report to the Central Electoral Commission.

12. Donations referred to in paragraph 11 of this Article shall not be accepted in cash.

Article 11. Unacceptable donations

1. It shall be prohibited to use for political campaigns the received donations that do not meet the requirements of this Law. If such donations have been received and the donor is known, the political campaign treasurer must, within five working days from the date of the receipt of such donation, return the donation to the donor, indicating the reason for refusing to accept the donation. In the event of failure to establish the identity of the donor within 10 working days, the political campaign treasurer shall transfer the donation to the state budget.

2. It shall be prohibited to fund political parties and political campaign participants through the third persons.

3. The following shall not be regarded as unacceptable donations and may be used to fund a political campaign:

1) the donations provided for in paragraph 11 of Article 10 of this Law, if they have been received pursuant to the procedure provided for in paragraph 11 of Article 10 of this Law and the restriction on the maximum permitted amount;

2) the donations exceeding 10 per cent of the amount of the annual income declared by a natural person for the previous calendar year, if, according to the data available in the information system of the Central Electoral Commission at the moment of the inquiry of the political campaign treasurer, the total amount of the donations by that donor (including the donation offered to be donated to an independent political campaign participant) for independent political campaign participants does not exceed 10 per cent of the amount of the annual income declared by the natural person for the previous calendar year.

Article 12. Donors

1. The following shall have the right to make donations to political campaign participants:

- 1) citizens of the Republic of Lithuania – to participants of all political campaigns;
- 2) permanent residents of the Republic of Lithuania holding citizenship of another EU Member State – to participants of campaigns of elections to the European Parliament and municipal councils;
- 3) permanent residents of the Republic of Lithuania who do not hold citizenship of another EU Member State or stateless persons – to participants of political campaigns of elections to municipal councils;

2. Political parties shall enjoy the right to make donations for political campaigns of candidates, lists of candidates or referendums.

3. Political campaign funding agreements which confirm property and non-property (political) obligations of a political campaign participant (donor) and beneficiary must be drawn up in writing. They must be signed by a political campaign participant (donor), the political campaign treasurer and the donor. Political campaign funding agreements must be announced publicly and may not contradict public policy or good morals. It shall be prohibited to conclude secret obligations. A copy of the political campaign funding agreement together with a political campaign funding statement must be transferred to the Central Electoral Commission which must post the texts of the agreements on the website of the Central Electoral Commission.

4. Agreements between donors and beneficiaries related to commitments to private (personal and (or) group) interests shall be prohibited.

5. Persons elected to state or municipal institutions shall be prohibited from representing donors' private (personal and (or) group) interests and taking decisions which are exceptional favourable to them.

Article 13. Other activities of political parties

Political parties shall enjoy the right to engage in publishing, distribution of printed matter and party symbols, management, use and disposal of the property belonging by the right of ownership, organisation or political and cultural events (lectures, exhibitions, etc.) and other activities; money received from such activities may be used only for pursuance of the purposes of the political party as specified in the statutes of the political party.

Article 14. State budget appropriations for political parties

1. State budget appropriations for political parties shall be provided for in the draft of a Law of the Republic of Lithuania on the approval of financial indicators of the state budget and municipal budgets for each year and shall be allocated through a separate budget programme implemented by the Central Electoral Commission.

2. A total sum of appropriations for political parties shall be fixed in the state budget.

3. A certificate on the conformity of political parties to statutory requirements concerning the number of political party members shall be submitted to the Central Electoral Commission by the Ministry of Justice of the Republic of Lithuania not later than by 1 April of each year.

4. Funds from the appropriations earmarked for political parties in the state budget may be allocated to finance activities of political parties.

5. Where the Central Electoral Commission recognizes that a political party or a political campaign participant has grossly violated this Law, it/he shall not be allotted state budget appropriations for a period of two years counting from the date of entry into force of the decision. The state budget appropriations which are not allocated due to the said reason shall be returned to the state budget.

6. State budget appropriations for political parties may be used for:

- 1) to fund political campaign;
- 2) to pay an election deposit;
- 3) to purchase current and fixed assets;
- 4) to settle with employees;
- 5) taxes and other contributions to the budget, compulsory state social insurance contributions and compulsory health insurance contributions;
- 6) to cover expenses related to the provision of services;
- 7) to cover arrears of the political party's political campaign;
- 8) to repay loans taken by the political party and intended for the expenses referred to in subparagraphs 3, 4, 5 and 6 of this paragraph.

7. State budget appropriations may not be used for the expenses referred to in subparagraphs 3, 4, 5, 6 and 8 of paragraph 6 of this Article, if such expenses were incurred when carrying out the activities provided for in Article 13 of this Law. The accounting of the activities provided for in Article 13 of this Law shall be managed separately from the accounting of the use of the state budget appropriations.

8. Liabilities of third persons may not be guaranteed, secured with state budget funds; damage caused by third persons also may not be covered with state budget funds.

9. The political party must specify the use of state budget appropriations in the report on the use of state budget appropriations which is submitted together with a set of financial statements of the political party.

10. The state budget appropriations which have not been used during a year shall remain in the political party's account of state budget appropriations and may be used next year for the funding of the activities specified in paragraph 6 of this Article.

11. No interim protection measures may be applied in respect of the account of state budget appropriations.

Article 15. Procedure of calculation of the amount of state budget appropriations to fund activities of a political party, distribution and payment of such state budget appropriations

1. Political parties, which are entered on the Register of Legal Entities in accordance with the procedure laid down by the law and which satisfy statutory requirements regarding the number of political party's members and the restructuring or liquidation procedure has not been initiated in respect of them, shall be entitled to state budget appropriations to fund activities of the political party.

2. State budget appropriations designated for funding activities of the political party shall be allocated to those political parties satisfying the criteria set out in paragraph 1 of this Article which received not less than 3 per cent of all the votes cast by the voters for the candidates of the political parties in those elections to the Seimas, municipal councils, the European Parliament according to the results of which these state budget appropriations are allocated.

3. State budget appropriations designated for funding activities of political parties shall be allocated according to the valid results of the elections to the Seimas, municipal councils, the European Parliament (rerun election, by-election and run-off voting) in which the powers of the elected candidates have not been terminated or upon their termination a vacant place was occupied without holding elections:

1) according to the results of the last elections to the Seimas, municipal councils, the European Parliament in multi- member constituencies. In the event where the nominated list of candidates is coalitional, the number of the received votes shall be distributed to the political parties in proportion to the number of the candidates on the coalition list;

2) according to the results of the last election, the last rerun election, last by-election to the Seimas in single-member constituencies. If several political parties nominated a candidate, the votes received by the candidate shall be equally distributed among the political parties which nominated him;

3) according to the results of the last run-off voting in single-member constituencies of the election to the Seimas. If upon the election of a Seimas member at the election, rerun election or by-election the run-off voting has not been held, then the results of the last election, rerun election or by-election in the particular single-member constituency shall be taken instead of the results of the run-off voting. If several political parties nominated a candidate, the votes received by the candidate shall be distributed equally among the political parties which nominated him.

4. The amount of state budget appropriations for funding activities of a political party, which is allocated for that political party, shall be determined in accordance with the following procedure:

1) by summing up only the votes of voters cast for the candidates of those political parties for which state budget appropriations may be allocated under paragraph 2 of this Article for funding activities of the political party, the number of all votes is determined;

2) a six-month financial coefficient of one voter's vote is established by dividing the half of the state budget appropriations designated for funding activities of the political party by the number of votes of all the voters;

3) the six-month appropriations of the state budget allocated for the political party to fund activities of the political party is determined by multiplying a six-month financial coefficient of one voter's vote by the number of votes of the voters who cast their votes for the candidates of this political party.

5. The amount of state budget appropriations allocated for the political party to fund activities of the political party shall be determined by the Central Electoral Commission in accordance with the procedure laid down by this Article; the Commission shall, not later than by 15 April and 15 November of each year, transfer the said amount to the political party's account of state budget appropriations.

Article 16. Repealed as of 1 January 2012.

Article 17. Political campaign expenditure and spending limits

1. When a political campaign begins all expenditure designated to finance the political campaign may be paid only from the funds kept in the political campaign account.

2. In those cases where the constituency covers the entire territory of the Republic of Lithuania, the maximum amount of expenditure to fund the political campaign of one independent political campaign participant shall be calculated in the following manner: The number of voters entered on the electoral roll of the Republic of Lithuania shall be multiplied by LTL 1 and the received product shall be rounded up within the accuracy of the first two significant digits.

3. In those cases where the constituency covers a part of the territory of the Republic of Lithuania, the maximum amount of expenditure to fund the political campaign of one independent political campaign participant shall be calculated in the following manner: the number of voters of one constituency shall be multiplied by LTL 2 and the received product shall be rounded up within the accuracy of the first two significant digits. If the received product is less than LTL 20 000, the fixed maximum amount of the political campaign expenditure shall be LTL 20 000. In elections to municipal councils a political party, which has nominated a list (lists) of candidates, may additionally spend for this political campaign not more than 10 per cent of the maximum amount of the expenditure of the political campaign of the lists of candidates nominated by this party.

4. Expenditure and assumed liabilities of the political campaign participant during the political campaign period shall be recognised as political campaign funding expenditure, where such liabilities and expenditure are designated for:

- 1) production or distribution of political advertising or any other campaigning material through any means of the mass media or in any other public mode;
- 2) remuneration of the political campaign treasurer and performance of his functions;
- 3) a political campaign auditing firm;
- 4) the rent of movable and immovable property necessary during the political campaign;
- *5) rent, exploitation of vehicles used for the political campaign;
- 6) communications, meals, provision of accommodation and transport of political campaign volunteers, political party's or candidate's representatives for the election or election (referendum) observers;
- 7) other expenditure defined in this Law.

5. Expenditure designated for the purpose indicated in paragraph 4 of this Article but incurred during the period other than a political campaign period, if the property and other assets specified in the said paragraph are intended for political campaign or if services are received during the political campaign period, shall be recognized as political campaign expenditure. In this case political campaign participants must inform the Central Electoral Commission about this, attaching copies of the documents confirming the expenditure. When necessary, the Central Electoral Commission may request additional information.

6. The amount of every political campaign participant's expenditure referred to in paragraphs 4 and 5 of this Article may not exceed the maximum amounts of expenditure set in paragraph 2 or 3 of this Article. In the cases where under the election law a run-off voting is carried out, the maximum amount of political campaign expenditure of a candidate who participates in the run-off voting shall be increased by 25 per cent.

7. The following shall not be regarded as political campaign expenditure:

1) the expenditure incurred by political parties, potential candidates, candidates, referendum initiators, referendum opponents under legal services contracts;

2) expenditure designated for payment of the election deposit;

3) expenditure designated for potential candidate's, candidate's travelling (transport and accommodation) to a constituency;

4) expenditure for payment for facilities of the political party and for activities of the staff, where such expenditure is incidental to this political party during the period other than the political campaign period.

8. If during the political campaign period a political campaign participant (with the exception of the political parties, candidates or lists of candidates nominated by them) gathered more funds than was used to cover the political campaign expenditure, the unused funds may be transferred to the state budget prior to the submission of a political campaign funding statement to the Central Electoral Commission. Funds that have not been used by political parties, candidates or lists of candidates nominated by them may be designated only for funding activities of the political party.

Note. This Law shall not apply to the political campaigns which began prior to the entry into force of this Law.*

CHAPTER THREE POLITICAL ADVERTISING

Article 18. Marking of political advertising

1. During the political campaign period, political advertising must be marked in accordance with the procedure laid down by the law by indicating the source of funding and visibly separated from other disseminated information.

2. Political advertising which is not marked during the political campaign period pursuant to the requirements set out by legal acts or marked not in compliance with legal acts shall be regarded as surreptitious political advertising and shall be prohibited. Dissemination of the surreptitious political advertising shall impose liability established by the law.

3. Besides the special requirements laid down in this Law, the principles and requirements for advertising set out in the Law on Provision of Information to the Public shall apply to political advertising.
