

LAW OF UKRAINE "On Access to Public Information"

Excerpt from the Law of Ukraine

"On the Access to Public Information"

Article 17. Control of ensuring access to public information

1. Parliamentary control over the observance of human rights to access to information is maintained by the Ukrainian Parliament Commissioner for Human Rights, temporary investigative commission of the Verkhovna Rada of Ukraine, National deputies of Ukraine.
2. Public control over the provision of information by organizers of access to public information is maintained by deputies of local councils, public organizations, community councils, citizens individually through appropriate public hearings, public examinations and so on.

Kyiv, January 13, 2011

N 2939-VI