Article 10. Expenditure Related to the Preparation and Conduct of Elections

The expenses related to the preparation and execution of elections of the President of the Republic shall be covered by the State and local authorities. The expenditure of electoral committees related to the organisation and conduct of elections shall be covered and the work of the members of electoral committees and the service staff shall be paid from the state budget. Maintenance of premises of the offices of electoral committees of municipalities and polling districts, expenditures related to acquisition and keeping of the equipment of polling stations shall be paid with local authority funds. If the municipality fails to provide adequate premises and supplies for the office of the polling district and the polling station, by the decision of the Central Electoral Commission, state funds shall be used for this purpose. In this event the actual expenses relating to polling stations and equipment shall, within 2 months after the election, be exacted by the Central Electoral Commission from the local authority without suit.

CHAPTER TWO

ORGANISATION OF ELECTIONS

Article 11. Formation of Polling Districts

1. With a view of making it more convenient for voters to reach a polling station and with account of the number of voters, the territories of municipalities shall be divided into polling districts.

Version of paragraph 2 valid until 31 December 2013:

2. The division of the territory of a municipality into polling districts shall be approved and changed by the Central Electoral Commission on the recommendation of the municipal administration director. The Central Electoral Commission shall publish a list of approved polling districts as well as the changes made therein in the official gazette Valstybės žinios.

Version of paragraph 2 valid as of 1 January 2014:

2. The division of the territory of a municipality into polling districts shall be approved and changed by the Central Electoral Commission on the recommendation of the municipal administration director. The Central Electoral Commission shall publish a list of approved polling districts as well as the changes made therein on its website.

3. No more than 5 000 voters must reside within the territory of a polling district.

4. The boundaries of a polling district and the address of a polling station shall be changed, where necessary, but no later than 100 days prior to elections. In his recommendation to approve the division of the territory of a municipality into polling districts, the municipal administration director shall specify a proposed name of a polling district, the addresses which are within the polling district, the number of voters in the polling district which is being formed, the address and telephone number of a polling station. The recommendation on changes in the division of the municipality into polling districts shall specify the changes it is proposing. No later than 100 prior to the election the municipal administration director shall also inform the Central Electoral Commission about new addresses, changed addresses or addresses which are no longer existent, as well as approve the addresses and telephone numbers of polling stations.

5. When an early election of the President of the Republic according to Article 87 of the Constitution or an election of the President of the Republic according to paragraph 1 of Article 89 of the Constitution is held within two months from the announcement thereof, the Central Electoral Commission may change the boundaries of polling districts and the addresses of polling stations not later than 50 days before the election. If the said election is held earlier than within two months from the announcement thereof, the boundaries of polling districts shall not be changed.

Article 12. Electoral Committees

1. The elections of the President of the Republic shall be organised and conducted by:

- 1) the Central Electoral Commission;
- 2) municipal electoral committees; and
- 3) the electoral committees of polling districts.

2. Members of electoral committees may not be candidates for President of the Republic or agents of such candidates.

3. A citizen of the Republic of Lithuania who has the right to be elected as Seimas member (without taking into consideration the minimum age limit set for a candidate for Seimas member, but who is not younger than 18 years of age on the election day), has the higher university education or education equal to it, or the higher non-university education, and has not been removed during the last three years from an electoral committee for the violations of laws on elections or referendum, may be proposed to an electoral committee. The requirement to have the higher education shall not apply to a member of a polling district electoral committee.

Article 13. Formation of Municipal Electoral Committees

1. The Central Electoral Commission shall for the period of elections form municipal electoral committees no later than 74 days in advance of the elections.

2. Municipal electoral committees shall be composed of:

1) a person nominated by the Minister of Justice, having a university law degree, who resides or works in the territory of that municipality;

2) persons nominated by the Lithuanian Lawyers' Association, having a university law degree, who reside or work in the territory of that municipality;

3) one career civil servant who works in the administration of that municipality and who is nominated by the director of the administration of that municipality;

4) persons nominated by parties which have received the mandates of the Seimas members in the multi-member constituency.

3. The Minister of Justice, the Lithuanian Lawyers' Association and the directors of the municipal administrations may propose more candidates.

4. Parties which have received the mandates of the Seimas members in the multi-member constituency according to the list (joint list) of candidates shall each have the right to nominate one representative to each municipal electoral committee from one list of candidates nominated in this constituency. If the representatives meet the requirements of this Law, the Central Electoral Commission may not reject said candidates. In the event that candidates for membership have not been proposed, the Central Electoral Commission may additionally appoint as members of the committee the candidates are proposed by the Minister of Justice, the Lithuanian Lawyers' Association or the director of municipal administration.

5. In all cases, not less than three committee members must be the persons appointed to municipal electoral committees from the candidates proposed by the Minister of Justice, the Lithuanian Lawyers' Association and the director of the administration. If these people make up less than three members of the committee, the committee shall be enlarged from the persons proposed by the Minister of Justice or the Lithuanian Lawyers' Association, or the director of municipal administration.

6. If elections to the Seimas or to the office of President of the Republic, or to municipal councils, or to the European Parliament, or a referendum are concurrently held on the same day, the same polling district committees or referendum committees shall be formed. The Central Electoral Commission shall form a single – municipal, constituency or referendum - committee on a separate electoral, referendum territory and shall define its functions in organising and carrying out other elections or a referendum.

7. The Central Electoral Commission shall appoint a chairman of the municipal electoral committee. A person who has the work experience as chairman or member of the Central Electoral Commission or municipal electoral committee, or constituency electoral committee, or the work experience as chairman of the polling district electoral committee shall be appointed chairman of the municipal electoral committee.

8. During its first meeting, the municipal electoral committee shall elect the deputy chairman and the secretary of the committee.

9. When an early election of the President of the Republic according to Article 87 of the Constitution or an election of the President of the Republic according to paragraph 1 of Article 89 of the Constitution is held within two months from the announcement thereof, the Central Electoral Commission shall, not later than 50 days before the election, set up municipal electoral committees. If the said election is held earlier than within two months from the announcement thereof, such 50-day time limit shall be reduced by the number of days lacking to constitute a two-month time limit.

Article 14. Powers of Municipal Electoral Committees

The municipal electoral committee shall:

1) in the manner prescribed by the Central Electoral Commission, inform the voters who reside within the municipality about the boundaries of polling districts, offices of electoral committees, working hours and polling stations;

2) supervise the implementation of this Law in the municipality;

3) form electoral committees of polling districts;

4) distribute the funds allocated for elections among the electoral committees of the polling districts, control the use of these funds and report to the Central Electoral Commission about the funds used for elections;

5) register election observers and issue certificates to them;

6) make up a list of health care (except out-patient), social care and guardianship institutions, military units, arrest houses, remand prisons (detention facilities) and penal institutions situated in the territory of a municipality, and together with the head of the post office have care of the organisation of voting by post in those places, as well as organise voting in advance;

7) draw up a vote counting record of voters, establish voting results and transfer them for approval to the Central Electoral Commission;

8) consider complaints against decisions and actions of the electoral committees of polling districts and adopt decisions concerning them; and

9) in the manner prescribed by the Central Electoral Commission, during the period of election campaign collect, delineate and store the data about political advertising disseminated publicly within the municipal territory, and furnish these data to the Central Electoral Commission;

10) exercise other powers provided for in this Law.

Article 15. Formation of the Committees of Polling Districts

1. No later than 65 days prior to the elections, the municipal electoral committee shall determine the number of the members of each electoral committee of the polling district that must be a multiple of the number of the parties which have the right to nominate candidates to electoral committees. If the number of proposed candidatures is insufficient or there is a vacancy in the committee, the director of the administration of the municipality in the territory of which the polling district is formed may propose the lacking candidatures.

2. The following shall be entitled to propose the same number of candidates for an electoral committee of a polling district:

1) each party or coalition of the parties which received the mandates of Seimas member in a multi-member constituency during the last elections to the Seimas. If the party received mandates of Seimas member while being in the coalition, it may propose candidates together with the parties which participated in the coalition;

2) the party or coalition of the parties which received the mandates of councillor from the list of nominated candidates (joint list) in the elections to a municipal council. If the party received mandates of municipal councillor while being in the coalition, it may propose candidates together with the parties which participated in the coalition.

3. If the party may propose candidates according to the results of the elections to the Seimas and to a municipal council as well, then it shall propose candidates according to the results of only one of these elections for choice. If one of the parties which took part in an election coalition fails to nominate candidates or refuses to nominate them, or if it chooses to nominate candidates according to the results of the elections other than those when the coalition was formed, the other parties in this coalition have the right to nominate candidates without the participation of said party.

4. Parties shall submit their lists of candidates to the municipal electoral committee no later than 48 days prior to the elections.

5. Electoral committees of the polling districts for the period of the elections shall be formed by municipal electoral committees no later than 45 days before the elections. If a candidate nominated by the party meets the requirements of this Law the municipal electoral committee may not turn him down.

6. If no candidates have been proposed or the proposed candidates do not meet the requirements of this Law, or they have been proposed after the set period of time, a municipal electoral committee may decrease the earlier fixed number of the members of the polling district electoral committee or address the municipal administration director to propose the lacking number of candidates for a polling district electoral committee. The candidates nominated by the director of the municipal administration may not be party members or become party members until the expiration of the term of office of an electoral committee member. If during a meeting of a municipal electoral committee which appoints a member of the electoral committee of a polling district nominated by the director of the municipal administration no less than three members of the municipal electoral committee object to the appointment of the candidate, this candidate may not be appointed a member of the committee.

7. Municipal electoral committees shall appoint chairmen of the electoral committees of the polling districts. A person who has the work experience as chairman or member of the electoral committee, or a person who has the higher university education or the education equal to it, or the higher non-university education shall be appointed chairman of the electoral committee of the pooling district.

8. During its first sitting the electoral committee of a polling district shall elect a deputy chairman and a secretary of the committee.

9. When an early election of the President of the Republic according to Article 87 of the Constitution or an election of the President of the Republic according to paragraph 1 of Article 89 of the Constitution is held within two months from the announcement thereof, municipal electoral committees shall, not later than 45 days before elections, establish a number of members of each polling district electoral committee. Parties shall submit lists of candidates for the members of electoral committees of polling districts to the municipal electoral committees no later than 42 days prior to elections. Polling district electoral committees shall be set up not later than 40 days left to the election. An electoral committee member who does not give a written pledge longer than 7 days after the appointment or who gives a written pledge with the reservation, shall lose his powers in the electoral committee. If an early election of the President of the Republic according to Article 87 of the Constitution or an election of the President of the Republic according to paragraph 1 of Article 89 of the Constitution is held earlier than within two months from the announcement thereof, the time limits of 40, 42 and 45 days specified in this paragraph shall be reduced by the number of days lacking to constitute a two-month time limit.

Article 16. Powers of the Electoral Committee of the Polling District

The electoral committee of the polling district shall:

1) receive electoral rolls of the polling district from the municipal electoral committee, provide conditions for voters, representatives for the elections to familiarise themselves with said lists, inform the municipal electoral committee about inaccuracies noticed in the electoral roll of the polling district;

2) investigate complaints concerning the errors made in polling district electoral rolls;

3) in the manner prescribed by the Central Electoral Commission, supervise the course of voting by post on the territory of a polling district, and monitor the provision of opportunities for voting by post in all health care (except out-patient), social care and guardianship institutions, military units, arrest houses, remand prisons (detention facilities) and penal institutions situated in the territory of a polling district, as well as organise voting at home;

4) together with a representative of the municipal administration, have care of preparing polling stations, voting booths and ballot boxes in due time pursuant to the requirements provided in this Law;

5) organise voting in the polling district on the election day;

6) calculate votes and draw up the vote calculation records of the polling district;

- 7) consider the complaints of the voters and observers of that polling district on issues concerning the preparation of the elections, the organisation of voting, vote calculation, the drawing up of vote calculation records, and adopt decisions related to them; and
- 8) exercise other powers provided for in this Law.

Article 17. Written Pledge of Members of Electoral Committees and Organisation of Electoral Committee Work

1. A member, chairman of an electoral committee shall start holding the position in the electoral committee upon having given a written pledge.

2. The Central Electoral Commission shall establish the procedure for giving a written pledge by the members, chairmen of the municipal electoral committees and the electoral committees of the polling districts. The texts of a written pledge of the member and the chairman of an electoral committee shall read as follows:

1) “ I, (name, surname), swear to be faithful to the Republic of Lithuania, observe its Constitution and laws, conscientiously and honestly perform my duties in the electoral committee and refrain from actions violating laws and the rights of citizens.”

So help me God.”

2) “I, (first name, name), swear to be faithful to the Republic of Lithuania, observe its Constitution and laws, in good faith and conscientiously perform my duties in the electoral committee and refrain from actions violating laws and the human rights.”

3. Upon having given a written pledge, a person shall subscribe to the text of the pledge. The pledge shall be effective for the whole duration of the appointment to work in the electoral committee. The text of a written pledge may not be altered. It shall be prohibited to hold the position in the electoral committee without giving a written pledge.

4. Written pledges of the members, chairmen of the electoral committees shall remain in the custody of the electoral committee that has administered them.

5. When appointing an electoral committee member, the Central Electoral Commission or a municipal electoral committee shall fix the time when he must give a written pledge. The person who has not given a written pledge within 15 days after his appointment or who has given a written pledge with a reservation, shall be removed from his position in the electoral committee.

6. Sitzings of electoral committees shall be valid provided that at least three-fifths of the members of the committee are in attendance. Decisions made by the committee shall be adopted by open, majority vote. In the event of a tie vote, the committee chairperson's vote shall be casting. Committee members who do not agree with the decision shall be entitled to express a separate opinion in writing. An individual opinion shall be attached to the minutes and shall form an integral part of the minutes.

7. After the close of elections, the powers of the chairmen and members of municipal electoral committees and electoral committees of polling districts shall be suspended. The decision to terminate the powers of the committee members, chairman shall be taken by the electoral committee which appointed the committee members, chairman when this committee, its chairman have fulfilled all the tasks assigned to them under this Law.

8. The chairman, member of an electoral committee who has given a written pledge shall be prohibited from any form of election campaigning and attempts to influence the voter's will in any other way. The individual, who has violated this requirement or a written pledge of an electoral committee member, must be dismissed from the committee and may be prosecuted under laws.

Article 18. Appeals against Decisions of Electoral Committees Adopted before Closing of the Polls

1. All parties which have nominated presidential candidates, as well as agents of candidates for President of the Republic may appeal against the decisions of electoral committees according to the following procedure:

- 1) decisions of the electoral committees of the polling districts – to the municipal electoral committee;
- 2) decisions of the municipal electoral committees – to the Central Electoral Commission;
- 3) decisions of the Central Electoral Commission - to the Supreme Administrative Court of Lithuania.

2. Appeals must be considered within 48 hours from the submission of the appeal. The decision of the Supreme Administrative Court of Lithuania shall become effective from its pronouncement.

Article 19. Complaints against the Decisions of Electoral Committees which Have Been Adopted after the Close of the Poll

1. All parties which have nominated presidential candidates, as well as the agents of candidates for President of the Republic, may appeal to the municipal electoral committee against the decisions of electoral committees of polling districts concerning the drawing-up of records of the calculation of votes not later than within 24 hours of their adoption. These appeals must be considered within 24 hours from the submission of the appeal.

2. When considering an appeal against the decision of the electoral committee of a polling district concerning the drawing-up of records of the calculation of votes, the municipal electoral committee may recount the ballot-papers presented by the electoral committee of the polling district, provided that at least three-fifths of the municipal electoral committee members are present. Upon establishing an arithmetic mistake, incorrectly calculated valid or invalid ballot-papers, the said committee may amend the entries in the records of the calculation of votes. The municipal electoral committee shall have no right to nullify the vote counting records of the polling district electoral committee.

3. The decisions of the Central Electoral Commission, with the exception of the decisions to declare the results of the elections of the President of the Republic invalid, may be appealed against to the Supreme Administrative Court of Lithuania not later than within 2 days of the adoption of the decision, and must be considered not later than within 48 hours. This term shall include non-working days as well. The decision of the Supreme Administrative Court of Lithuania shall become effective from the moment of its pronouncement and its execution shall be binding upon the Central Electoral Commission.

4. While considering an appeal against the decision of the municipal electoral committee concerning the drawing-up of records of the calculation of votes, the Central Electoral Commission may re-count the ballot-papers presented by the municipal electoral committee. Upon establishing an arithmetic mistake or incorrectly calculated ballot-papers, it may amend the entries in the records of the calculation of votes of the municipality or polling district. The Central Electoral Commission shall not have the right to declare invalid records of the calculation of votes of the municipality.

Article 20. Assistance for Electoral Committees

- 3) a citizen who has been declared legally incompetent by the court.

4. Provisional electoral rolls with changes done therein and acknowledged in the procedure established by the Central Electoral Commission shall be, not more than 7 days prior to the election, approved as final electoral rolls. Changes in final electoral rolls may be made only subject to the consent of the Central Electoral Commission.

Article 25. Electoral Rolls of Municipalities

The electoral roll of a municipality shall be drawn up in the electronic information media by the Central Electoral Commission according to the electoral roll of the Republic of Lithuania and the place of residence of a voter (the last known place of residence of a voter) indicated therein, and shall be delivered to the municipal electoral committee at least 39 days before the elections. Electoral rolls of voters residing abroad shall be also drawn up and shall be delivered to diplomatic missions and consular posts of the Republic of Lithuania. Furthermore, lists of voters whose place of residence is unknown shall be drawn up.

Article 26. Electoral Rolls of Polling Districts

The electoral roll of a polling district shall be drawn up by the municipal electoral committee according to the electoral roll of the municipality and the place of voter's residence indicated therein, and shall be delivered to the electoral committee of the polling district at least 26 days prior to the elections. Furthermore, lists of citizens whose place of residence is unknown shall be drawn up. Voters, ship's crew members and passengers who will be unable to return to Lithuania during the period of voting by post or to be present on the election day, shall, according to the procedure established by the Central Electoral Commission, be entered on an electoral roll of the polling district on the territory whereof the ship's registration harbour administration is located.

Article 27. Public Announcement of Electoral Rolls and Access to Electoral Rolls

1. The electoral committee of a polling district, a diplomatic mission and a consular post shall, at least 25 days prior to the election, shall provide conditions for the voters to have access to electoral rolls of the polling district. Voters shall be provided with data of an annex of the polling district electoral roll that concern only them. It shall be prohibited to make copies of electoral rolls of a polling district, or distribute them in other ways. The business hours of electoral committee members as well as the telephone numbers for voters to make inquiries about whether they are entered on the electoral roll must be on display at the entrance to the electoral committee office. Following expiration of the time limit for delivering voter certificates as provided by this Law, the business hours of the polling district electoral committee, its telephones must be on display in stairwell entrances of multi-family apartment houses. The time and place for the voters to exercise their right to have access to electoral rolls shall be on display in a diplomatic mission and a consular post, at the entrance to the premises of an electoral committee.

2. The electoral roll of the Republic of Lithuania and electoral rolls of municipalities shall not be announced publicly, however, the information about the entry of a voter on the electoral roll may be provided to the voter by telephone.

Article 28. Voter Certificate

1. A voter certificate shall be a document issued by an electoral committee specifying the polling district on the electoral roll of which a voter is entered. Voter certificates signed by the chairman of the electoral committee shall be delivered in accordance with the procedure laid down by the Central Electoral Commission. A voter himself, or at his request – any other person, may print his voter certificate in accordance with the data of the electoral roll of the Republic of Lithuania received electronically pursuant to the procedure established by the Central Electoral Commission. In this case the voter himself shall sign his voter certificate, except for the cases when because of the physical handicaps or disability he himself cannot sign it and the certificate is signed by another person chosen by the voter; the said person shall indicate his name, surname and personal number. One may not vote without a voter certificate (a duplicate), except for voting on the ship.

2. A voter certificate shall contain:

- 1) the name and surname of the voter;
- 2) the birth date of the voter (year, month, day);
- 3) the voter's address of the place of residence;
- 4) the name and number of a municipality in which the voter votes;
- 5) the name, number of a polling district on the electoral roll of which the voter has been entered, as well as the address of a polling station;
- 6) the successive number of a voter on the electoral roll of a polling district; and
- 7) the election date, the voting time at a polling station, the note that this certificate is obligatory when voting, other information relevant for the voter or when organising the elections.

3. If a voter requests to issue him with a duplicate of a voter certificate in place of the lost one or of a voter certificate he has not received, a duplicate must be issued to the voter immediately right after the establishment of the data on the voter which must be entered into the certificate.

Article 29. Delivery of the Voter Certificate

1. The delivery of voter certificates to voters shall be organised by the Central Electoral Commission. The Central Electoral Commission shall, in accordance with the procedure laid down by the legal acts regulating public procurement, in negotiated procedure without publication of a contract notice, purchase services of a service provider authorised to deliver voter certificates. If the procurement of a public service fails or is terminated, or suspended, or the public contract is terminated because of the improper execution, or other unforeseen circumstances occur, the Central Electoral Commission shall authorize municipal and polling district electoral committees to deliver voter certificates.

2. Articles 58, 61, 62 and 63 of this Law shall lay down the procedure for delivering voter certificates to voters who are in health care (except out-patient), social care and guardianship institutions, military units, arrest houses, remand prisons (detention facilities) and penal institutions, as well as to voters who have gone abroad.

3. A voter certificate shall be either delivered to the voter personally or to the other person who lives together with the voter and undertakes to deliver the voter certificate to the voter. The delivery of voter certificates to voters must be finished at least 20 days before the election. If elections either to the Seimas, or the European Parliament, or to municipal councils, or a referendum is announced during the same period, or the run-off voting is being held, a single voter certificate shall be delivered.

4. The voter who has not received a voter certificate in due time or who has received a voter certificate with incorrect data, must forthwith inform the polling district committee in the territory of which he resides, and to produce his passport or other document confirming his identity to this electoral committee. If the voter is entered on the electoral roll of this polling district, the electoral committee of the polling district must write out a new voter certificate to the voter and issue it to him immediately. If the voter has not been entered on the electoral roll of this polling district, but the address of the place of voter's residence according to the population register data is assigned to the territory of this polling district or the voter produces evidences that he resides within the territory of this polling district, the polling district electoral committee shall provide a request blank, the form whereof is prescribed by the Central Electoral Commission, to be filled out by the voter to enter him on the electoral roll of this polling district (or a member of the polling district electoral committee shall fill out this request himself), and shall immediately inform the municipal electoral committee about this, which must have care of entering the voter on the electoral roll of this polling district. The voter certificate shall be written out and delivered to the voter following upon checking the accuracy of electoral rolls.

5. A municipal electoral committee may, in the manner prescribed by the Central Electoral Commission, issue a voter certificate to a voter whose name is entered on the electoral roll of a different municipality if said voter is not able to return to his permanent place of residence to collect or obtain in some other manner a voter certificate. The voter must request this in writing.

Article 30. Checking the Accuracy of Electoral Rolls before Drawing up Final Electoral Rolls

1. Preliminary electoral rolls shall be updated when transferring a voter from one electoral roll of a municipality or a polling district into another, when removing a voter from or entering him on the electoral roll of the Republic of Lithuania.

2. The voter shall be transferred from one electoral roll into another if it becomes clear that the address of his place of residence in the provisional roll is incorrect or it has changed after said roll was drawn up.

3. Transferring of a voter from the electoral roll of one polling district into another in the same municipality shall be the responsibility of the municipal electoral committee which shall notify the Central Electoral Commission about the changes made in the electoral rolls of the polling districts. Transferring of the voter from the electoral roll of one municipality into the electoral roll of another municipality shall be executed by the Central Electoral Commission on the recommendation of the municipal electoral committee and shall inform the municipal electoral committees about the changes made. Only the Central Electoral Commission may enter a voter on or strike him from the electoral roll of the Republic of Lithuania in the cases provided in Article 24 of this Law.

Article 31. Entry of Citizens of the Republic of Lithuania Who Are Staying Abroad on Electoral Rolls

1. Citizens of the Republic of Lithuania staying in other states shall be entered on the electoral roll of the municipality of the city of Vilnius.

2. A diplomatic mission and a consular post of the Republic of Lithuania shall, at least 15 days before the elections, submit to the Central Electoral Commission the electoral roll compiled in the diplomatic mission and the consular post, as well as the data concerning checking the accuracy of said roll. This roll may be supplemented with the voters who will be unable to return to Lithuania during the period of voting by post or to be present on the election day, and who shall vote in a diplomatic mission or a consular post.

Article 32. Entering of Voters who are in Military Units, on Ships, Arrest Houses, Remand Prisons (Detention Facilities) and Penal Institutions

1. Voters performing the mandatory military shall be entered on the electoral rolls of that polling district on the territory of which they had permanently resided before they were summoned for the mandatory military service. Voters performing the active military service, civil service or working under employment contract in international military operations abroad shall be entered on the electoral rolls of the polling district on the territory of which they declared their place of residence.

2. The voters who are aboard a ship and who will be unable to return to Lithuania during the period of early voting or to be present on the election day, shall be entered on the additional electoral roll of the polling district on whose electoral roll the ship's crew is entered.

3. Voters who are in arrest houses, remand prisons (detention facilities) or penal institutions shall be entered on the electoral roll of the polling district on the territory of which they declared their place of residence. If such a person has not declared a place of residence and upon his written request, he shall be entered on the electoral roll of the polling district within the territory of which the penal institution, arrest house or remand prison (detention facility) is situated. A person who had declared his place of residence before he was placed in an arrest house, remand prison (detention facilities) or penal institution may not be entered on the electoral roll of the polling district within the territory of which the arrest house, remand prison (detention facilities) or penal institution is situated.

Article 33. Updating Electoral Rolls upon Drawing up Final Electoral Rolls, as well as on the Election day

If following the approval of the final electoral rolls, but no later than until 6 p.m. on the election day, the electoral committee of a polling district is addressed by a voter who is not entered on the electoral roll of this polling district and submits the passport or identity card of the citizen of the Republic of Lithuania, the electoral committee of the polling district shall enter the voter on the additional electoral roll of the polling district and allow him to vote according to the procedure established by the Central Electoral Commission. The Central Electoral Commission shall immediately inform the municipal electoral committee about the voter's surname, name, personal number, number of his passport or identity card. The municipal electoral committee shall check whether or not the voter is entered on the electoral roll of the municipality and take measures to guarantee that the voter would not vote twice or the ballot papers filled by him would be counted only once. If the voter has voted twice, only that vote shall be counted which was put in the ballot box of the polling district. The other vote of the voter, received by post or when cast according to the additional electoral roll of the polling district shall not be counted.

Article 34. Complaints about Electoral Rolls

1. A voter or a representative of the party may lodge complaints with the electoral committee of the polling district no later than 7 days before the election about the errors made in electoral rolls due to which the voter has not been entered on the electoral roll in the manner prescribed by this Law or has been entered on several electoral rolls. The electoral committee of the polling district must investigate the complaint and adopt a decision thereon either immediately or within 2 days of the receipt thereof, if more than 10 days are left until the election day.

2. A decision of the electoral committee of a polling district may be appealed against to an appropriate regional court. The court shall consider the appeal within 3 days. The decision of the court shall be final.

3. Complaints and comments shall not be investigated after the expiration of the term established for filing comments or complaints.

4. Electoral committees of polling districts shall report to the municipal electoral committee about the received complaints and changes made in the electoral rolls by the court's decision, and the electoral committee of the municipality shall report to the Central Electoral Commission as soon as possible but no later than within 12 hours.

CHAPTER FOUR NOMINATION OF CANDIDATES FOR PRESIDENT OF THE REPUBLIC

Article 35. Nomination of Candidates for President of the Republic

1. Individual persons may nominate themselves for President of the Republic.

2. The parties which are registered in the manner prescribed by law and meet the requirements for the number of party members may nominate or support individuals to be candidates for President of the Republic.

3. The nomination of candidates for President of the Republic shall begin not more than 80 nor less than 65 days prior to the election day.

4. When an early election of the President of the Republic according to Article 87 of the Constitution or an election of the President of the Republic according to paragraph 1 of Article 89 of the Constitution is held within two months from the announcement thereof, the nomination of candidates for President of the Republic shall commence on the next day after the entry into force of an appropriate Seimas or Government resolution concerning the announcement of an election, and shall end not later than 45 days before an election day. If the said election is held earlier than within two months from the announcement thereof, such 45-day time limit shall be reduced by the number of days lacking to constitute a two-month time limit.

Article 36. Statement about Individual's Participation in the Elections as a Candidate for President of the Republic

1. An individual who has been nominated or who has nominated himself to the office of President of the Republic must make a written statement about this to the Central Electoral Commission.

2. If an individual is nominated by parties to be a candidate for President of the Republic, such decision shall also be presented in writing. An individual who has been nominated or who has nominated himself to the office of President of the Republic must arrive and submit to the Central Electoral Commission a document confirming the citizenship of the Republic of Lithuania and a document attesting to the payment of a deposit amounting to five most recent average monthly wages of the national economy (hereinafter referred to as the AMW). After the elections the election deposit shall be refunded to the individual who paid it, provided that a candidate for President of the Republic has received more than 7 percent of votes cast by the voters who participated in the elections.

3. An individual who has been nominated or who has nominated himself to the office of President of the Republic must:

1) inform the Central Electoral Commission in writing whether he is or has been and when a citizen of any other state (states);

2) submit to the Central Electoral Commission a document confirming the citizenship of any other state (states);

3) submit a document issued by the competent authorities of the Republic of Lithuania, another state (other states), attesting to the renouncement of the citizenship another state (other states) of or the loss thereof;

4) inform the Central Electoral Commission in writing whether he agrees that the Central Electoral Commission would receive from the competent authorities of the Republic of Lithuania and foreign countries the data about the citizenship of any other state (states) he has or has had, and the renouncement or loss thereof.

4. An individual who has nominated himself or has been nominated as a candidate for President of the Republic must submit to the Central Electoral Commission a pledge of a set form to comply with the prohibition to bribe voters or persons entitled to vote.

5. If an individual does not agree that the Central Electoral Commission would receive the data specified in subparagraph 4 of paragraph 3 of this Article or does not submit to the Commission a pledge to comply with the prohibition to bribe voters and persons who are entitled to vote as provided for in paragraph 4 of this Article, the Central Electoral Commission shall not register individual's nomination to the office of President of the Republic, and if it has registered his nomination to the office of President of the Republic or his candidacy for President of the Republic, shall repeal such registration.

6. The Central Electoral Commission shall, not later than within 3 calendar days after the receipt of the statement, ascertain whether or not there is any reason specified in Article 78 of the Constitution of the Republic of Lithuania preventing the individual's nomination as a candidate for President of the Republic, whether or not he has fulfilled the requirements specified in paragraphs 3 and 4 of this Article as well as whether or not he has been registered as an independent participant of political campaign, and shall adopt a grounded decision to issue or to refuse to issue to the individual the forms for the collection of voter signatures with the name and surname of the candidate for President of the Republic indicated thereon. Refusal to issue the forms for the collection of voter signatures may be appealed against to the Supreme Administrative Court of Lithuania not later than within 3 days of the adoption of the decision, and the said Court must investigate the appeal not later than within 72 hours of the receipt of the complaint. This time limit shall include non-working days as well. The decision of the Supreme Administrative Court of Lithuania shall become effective from the date of the pronouncement thereof.

7. A candidate for President of the Republic shall have the right to withdraw in writing his application documents not later than 15 days left before the election. In this case the Central Electoral Commission may take a decision concerning registration of a candidate for President of the Republic only if the candidate for President of the Republic attends a meeting of the Central Electoral Commission and if not less than 13 days are left before elections.

Article 37. Collecting of Voter Signatures

1. At least twenty thousand voter signatures as prescribed in Article 79 of the Constitution must be collected on the form for the collection of voter signatures, which shall contain the following text:

I, as a citizen of the Republic of Lithuania, confirm my support for the application of

(the person's name and surname)

to participate in the..... (day, month and year) elections as a candidate for President of the Republic.

State, municipal officers shall be prohibited from using their official position in creating for themselves or others exceptional election campaigning conditions. In the event the officer violates this Article, criminal or administrative action may be brought against him in a manner prescribed by law.

2. If a person is a candidate for President of the Republic, he can use the state or local authority mass media only according to the procedure set forth in Article 41 of this Law. If a candidate for President of the Republic due to the fulfilment of his duties has to release important news to the mass media, he may do so only at a press conference. The state or local authority mass media can publicise only a recording of such conference, which contains no election campaigning.

Article 48. Financing of Presidential Election Campaign

Financing of presidential election campaigns shall be regulated by the Law on Financing of Political Parties and Political Campaigns, as well as Control over such Financing.

Article 49. Prohibition of Campaigning on the Election Day

1. Campaigning, regardless of its methods, forms and measures, shall be prohibited during 30 hours before the beginning of the elections and on the election day until the end of voting, with the exception of permanent visual campaign material in the places intended for this, provided that it was displayed at least 48 hours prior to the beginning of the elections. During the period of election campaign prohibition no visual campaigning material (with the exception of those published by the Central Electoral Commission) may be displayed in a polling station or within 50 meters of the building in which a polling station is located. If campaigning for elections to the Seimas, or to the European Parliament, or municipal councils, or campaigning regarding a referendum is conducted concurrently, campaigning shall be prohibited during 30 hours before the beginning of the elections and on the election day until the end of voting, under the same conditions and in accordance with the same procedure as specified in this paragraph.

2. Information about the course of elections, their importance for the life of the country, the number of voters who have come to vote, the documents necessary to have when voting, invitation to come to vote or any other information which does not urge not to participate in elections, vote for or against a candidate for President of the Republic shall not be regarded as election campaign.

3. Persons who violate the provisions of paragraph 1 of this Article shall be held liable under law.

CHAPTER SEVEN

PREPARATORY ACTIVITIES FOR THE ORGANISATION OF ELECTIONS

Article 50. Ballot Papers

In elections of the President of the Republic, each voter shall be presented with a ballot-paper which shall contain the name and surname of each candidate for President of the Republic. Candidates for President of the Republic shall be listed in alphabetic order.

Article 51. Delivery of Ballot Papers

1. Municipal electoral committees shall recount received ballot papers and postal voting envelopes, and write up an acceptance report.

2. Municipal electoral committees shall deliver ballot-papers to the electoral committees of polling districts at least 12 hours prior to the beginning of voting. The electoral committees of polling districts shall recount the ballot-papers and draw up a report of the receipt thereof.

3. Municipal electoral committees shall deliver ballot-papers and postal voting envelopes to central post offices at least 2 days before the beginning of postal voting.

4. At diplomatic missions and consular posts of the Republic of Lithuania, voters must be provided with free access to ballot-papers and postal voting envelopes at least 15 days prior to the election day, on ships voters must be provided with free access to the text of ballot-papers not less than 15 days prior to elections. On ships ballot-papers shall be printed according to their description sent by a radiogram.

5. The Central Electoral Commission shall be responsible for printing, calculation and delivery of ballot-papers and postal voting envelopes within the fixed time period.

CHAPTER EIGHT

VOTING

Article 52. Time and Place of Voting

Voting shall take place on the election day from 7 a.m. to 8 p.m. in the polling station designated by the electoral committee. Voters shall only vote in the polling district on whose electoral roll their names have entered. Votes received by mail shall be valid only in the polling district on whose electoral roll the name of the voter has been entered.

Article 53. Preparation of Polling Stations

1. A polling station of the polling district must be completely prepared for elections not later than 12 hours before the beginning of voting. Moreover, the electoral committee must have counted all ballot papers received from the municipal electoral committee and drawn up their acceptance report by the prescribed time. In the polling station of a polling district there must be a ballot box , secret voting booth (booths) in which a voter could fill ballot papers in secrecy. Election posters, issued by the Central Electoral Commission, must be displayed in the polling station. The text of this Law must be accessible in each polling district. The election campaign material, except for the material issued by the Central Electoral Commission, shall be removed from the polling station, passageways leading to or out of it (corridors) and within 50 metres of the building in which the polling station is situated. Working places for the electoral committee members, places for election observers must be also organised. Upon completion of preparations the polling station shall be closed, sealed, left under the police protection and the chairman of the electoral committee of the polling district shall inform the municipal electoral committee thereof.

2. The Central Electoral Commission shall establish other requirements for preparation of polling stations

Article 54. Commencement of Voting

On the election day, the polling station shall be opened only if at least 3/5 of the members of the electoral committee of the polling district are present. The chairman of the electoral committee, together with the members of the electoral committee, shall make sure that a ballot box is empty and seal it up. Having checked that the polling station has been furnished without violating the established requirements, the chairperson of the electoral committee of the polling district shall register the total number of the ballot-papers received by the electoral committee of the polling district into the record of the calculation of votes, distribute the ballot-papers and electoral rolls among the members of the electoral committee, register the number of ballot-papers handed out to each electoral committee member into the record of the calculation of votes of the polling district and open the polling station, thereby, proclaiming the commencement of elections.

Article 55. Voter Identification

1. At the entrance to the polling station, a voter shall present his voter certificate, passport or other document proving his identity to an electoral committee member of the polling district. Upon having established that the voter has arrived at the polling district on the electoral roll of which his name has been included, a committee member shall hand the voter an arrival card, stamped with the seal of the polling district, indicating which the voter was to come to the polling station to vote and shall show the committee member to be applied to for a ballot. It shall not be allowed to hand several arrival cards to one voter or to hand in to a voter another voter's arrival card. If upon arriving at the polling station, the person does not have the required documents or it is not clear whether he has been entered on the electoral roll of this polling district, the committee member shall not hand the arrival card to this person, shall hand him a guest's card and refer him to the committee chairman or deputy chairman to find out about voting.

2. The committee member who is instructed to hand out the ballot papers, having established on the basis of the produced documents that the person who arrived to vote is indeed the citizen of the Republic of Lithuania who has been entered on the electoral roll, or provided that two citizens of the Republic of Lithuania entered on the electoral roll of that polling district witness to this fact in writing to the electoral committee chairman, shall find the surname of the voter on the electoral roll and shall accept the voter certificate and the arrival card from the person. After the voter and the committee member who hands ballot papers sign on the electoral roll of the polling district, the voter shall be handed ballot papers. The voter certificate and arrival card shall not be returned to the voter. In voting by post, an entry shall be made on the voter certificate concerning the issue of a ballot paper, and the voter certificate shall be returned to the voter.

3. It shall be prohibited to hand the voter the ballot paper of another person. The member of an electoral committee who violates this provision shall be liable under law.

Article 56. Voting Procedure

1. Having been handed the ballot-paper, the voter shall go into a voting booth and mark the ballot-paper personally. Only one voter at a time may enter a voting booth and stay there, with the exception of the case referred to in paragraph 5 of this Article.

2. On the ballot-paper, the voter shall mark the name of the candidate for whom he is voting.

3. Voters shall personally cast their marked ballot-papers into the ballot-box.

4. If a voter so requests, faulty ballot-papers shall be exchanged for new ones by the decision of the electoral committee of the polling district. The chairperson of the electoral committee shall cross out the faulty ballot paper with a fountain pen (ball-point pen) and shall sign it. The electoral committee secretary and one of the committee members shall also sign the faulty ballot-paper. Spoiled ballot papers shall be kept separately.

5. Voters who because of physical handicaps or disability are unable to mark their ballot-papers themselves or cast them into the ballot-box may invite another person to mark the ballot-paper in the voting booth and cast it into the ballot-box for them. Electoral Committee chairpersons or members, election observers, shall be prohibited from carrying out such actions for voters.

Article 57. Voting by Post

1. Voting by post shall be made possible for voters who due to the health or age are in healthcare (except out-patient), social guardianship and care establishments or carry out mandatory military service and therefore are unable to arrive at a polling district, or they carry out active military service, civil service or work under employment contracts in international military operations abroad, or serve a sentence of arrest or imprisonment, or are in arrest houses, remand prisons (detention facilities) . Postal voting shall be possible at post offices set specially for postal voting (hereinafter referred to as “special post offices”) during their business hours on a last Wednesday, Thursday or Friday before the election day. In military units deployed abroad postal voting shall be conducted in accordance with the procedure laid down by the Central Electoral Commission, on the recommendation of the Ministry of National Defence. Expenses related to postal voting shall be covered with the funds of the State Budget.

2. The head of the post office shall be responsible for the organisation of postal voting. The chairman of the electoral committee of the polling district on the territory whereof the post office is situated shall be responsible for organising the supervision over the post office work related to voting by post. He shall, in conjunction with the chairmen of other polling district committees whom the municipal electoral committee has assigned with such a task, organise that members of polling district committees participate during voting in special post offices. Commanders of military units deployed abroad shall be responsible for organising voting by post in those units.

3. The head of the post office, with the consent of the municipal electoral committee, shall appoint postal workers for the issue and collection of ballot papers and postal voting envelopes during voting by post, who are entrusted with the work with election documents. If the municipal electoral committee requests so, the head of the post office must remove a postal worker from the work with election documents. Postal workers who are authorised to issue and accept election documents shall be issued by the municipal electoral committee the certificates in the established form. A postal worker who is not in possession of such certificate shall not have the right to issue and accept election documents. An electoral committee member, election observer, who has produced his certificate to the postal worker, a voter, who has produced the voter certificate, passport or any other document proving his identity, shall have the right to write down his remark in the said certificate. The head of the post office shall immediately notify the municipal electoral committee about this remark.

4. In the places referred to in Articles 60, 61, 62 and 63 of this Law there must be some premises (place) where the voter can, without interference and in secrecy, mark the ballot papers and put them into a postal voting envelope. In these cases voting procedure may be observed by the observers who have certificates permitting them to observe elections in any polling district.

5. The postal worker shall issue election documents in accordance with the procedure established by the Central Electoral Commission. Together with ballot papers, voters shall be given postal voting envelopes. A return envelope shall be addressed by the postal worker to the electoral committee of the polling district, which is indicated in the voter certificate of the person.

6. The voter shall vote personally and in secrecy:

- 1) mark the ballot papers;
- 2) put the marked ballot papers into the ballot paper envelope;
- 3) seal the ballot paper envelope;
- 4) place the ballot paper envelope into the return envelope together with the voter certificate;
- 5) seal the return envelope.

7. Actions referred to in paragraphs 6 and 8 of this Article shall be carried out by a voter himself. If because of the physical handicaps or disability a voter is unable to carry out the said actions himself, at his request such actions shall be carried out by a person he chooses. This person must mark the ballot papers in the voter's presence in compliance with his instructions and preserve the secrecy of voting.

8. The sealed return envelope (with the voter certificate, ballot paper envelope and ballot paper in it) the voter shall hand to a postal worker. Upon having received the return envelope handed by the voter, he shall seal it with a special mark and give the voter a receipt confirming the acceptance of this envelope.

9. A postal worker shall be prohibited from carrying out for a voter the actions referred to in paragraphs 6 and 8 of this Article, as well as from accepting from the voter a return envelope which is not sealed. Voters shall be prohibited from taking out postal ballot papers, postal voting envelopes or handing them to other persons.

Article 58. Polls in Diplomatic Missions and Consular Posts of the Republic of Lithuania

1. Voters who have gone to foreign states shall be entitled to vote in diplomatic missions or consular posts of the Republic of Lithuania during their business hours. Not less than 4 hours must be allotted for voting during a business day of the said establishments. Polls shall close on the election day at the Republic of Lithuania time.

2. Voting commissions set up by the diplomatic missions or consular posts of the Republic of Lithuania shall hand election documents to the voters who have notified the said institutions about their places of residence, or, at their request, deliver the documents by post and accept them.

3. Voters who have come for voting to a diplomatic mission or consular post of the Republic of Lithuania shall be prohibited from taking out the election documents or giving them to other persons.

Article 59. Polls Held on Ships

1. Voters (ship's crew and passengers) who are aboard a ship, if they left from a port of the Republic of Lithuania not earlier than 4 days prior to an election day and have not returned until the election day, or in the presence of other circumstances because of which they cannot vote in their polling district, by post, in a diplomatic mission or consular post of the Republic of Lithuania, shall have the right to vote on the ship.

2. On the recommendation of the Minister of Transport and Communications, the Central Electoral Commission shall draw up a list of ships sailing under the flag of the State of Lithuania, on which there are no less than 5 crew members - voters, voting is organised and with which the radio communication is maintained during the voting. On the recommendation of the Minister of Transport and Communications, the Central Electoral Commission shall fix such time for voting on the ship that each voter who is aboard the ship is given the opportunity to vote.

3. Voter certificates shall not be issued to the voters voting on ships.

Article 60. Organisation of Voting in Diplomatic Missions, Consular Posts and on Ships of the Republic of Lithuania

1. Voting commissions shall be set up in diplomatic missions, consular posts and on ships of the Republic of Lithuania in order to organise voting and count the votes cast.

2. Electoral committees shall be composed of a committee chairman and at least two members. An electoral committee shall be set up in a diplomatic mission or consular post of the Republic of Lithuania by its head from the employees of the diplomatic mission or consular post of the Republic of Lithuania, or from other citizens of the Republic of Lithuania residing in a foreign country. The procedure for giving written pledges of electoral committee members shall be established by the Central Electoral Commission.

3. Voting commissions on ships shall be set up by ship captains – citizens of the Republic of Lithuania, taking into account the decision of a meeting of the ship’s crew – citizens of the Republic of Lithuania.

4. The Central Electoral Commission shall establish the procedure for voting, vote counting and submitting records to the Central Electoral Commission as well as the procedure for issuing certificates to election observers.

5. On the recommendation of the Minister of Foreign Affairs, the Central Electoral Commission shall draw up a list of diplomatic missions and consular posts of the Republic of Lithuania in which voting shall be conducted and shall set election days (no less than 10) for each diplomatic mission and consular post.

6. In diplomatic missions, consular posts of the Republic of Lithuania their heads and on ship their captains – citizens of the Republic of Lithuania shall be responsible for organizing voting, submitting to the Central Electoral Commission the records and other documents determined by it.

7. Voting shall not be organised on ships in which there are no conditions for organising the voting in accordance with the requirements of this Law.

Article 61. Voting in Institutions of Healthcare, Social Guardianship and Care

1. Voters who because of their health condition or age are in healthcare (except out-patient) facilities, institutions of social guardianship or care shall be entitled to vote in such institutions.

2. A municipal electoral committee shall, not later than 15 days prior to an election day and upon the recommendation of the heads of the institutions specified in paragraph 1 of this Article, draw up a list of special post offices and, upon the recommendation of the head of the post office, set such working hours of the post offices that the days of voting in them would be in compliance with paragraph 1 of Article 57 of this Law.

3. The heads of the institutions referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article shall draw up lists of voters voting in special post offices. The following must be indicated in such list of voters voting in a special post office: voter’s name and surname, personal number, municipal electoral committee (name and number), whether or not a voter has a voter certificate. The head of the institution shall transfer a list of voters voting in a special post office to a municipal electoral committee, receive voter certificates from it or print them according to the date received via means of electronic communication and ensure the delivery of the certificates to voters, allot the premises appropriate for voting, and be responsible that the voters would be notified about the working place and time of a special post office, and that the conditions would be created for voters to reach it.

4. Voters who are able to move shall vote themselves in accordance with the procedure covered in paragraphs 6 and 7 of Article 57 of this Law. Voters who are unable to move shall be visited by at least two polling district committee members, election observers (should they wish so) and employees of special post offices.

5. If because of the physical handicaps or disability voters are unable to vote themselves, they may entrust other persons to vote for them. These persons must mark the ballot papers in the presence of the voter according to his instructions and preserve the secrecy of voting.

6. Committee members, employees of a special post office and election observers shall be prohibited from carrying out the actions related to voting, as well as from accepting from the voter a return envelope which is not sealed.

5. The provisions of this Article and Article 57 of this Law shall apply to voting in arrest houses, remand prisons (detention facilities).

6. It shall be prohibited to exert influence on self-determination of a voter voting in an arrest house, remand prison (detention facilities) or penal institution, or to rush him to vote.

Article 64. Voting at Home and Voting in Advance

1. Only the following persons may vote at home: disabled voters, voters with temporary working incapacity, voters aged 70 and over if because of the health condition they are unable to come to a post office to vote or to a polling district on election day and if they produce a voter's request, the form of which is set by the Central Electoral Commission, for voting at home. Electoral committees which make up and verify lists of voters voting at home shall be entitled to receive information concerning disabled persons from the State Social Insurance Fund Board or its territorial departments, and information concerning persons with temporary working incapacity – from healthcare establishments. Electoral committees may not disseminate this information and shall use it only for the purpose of making-up and verification of lists of voters voting at home.

2. Only those voters may vote in advance, who are unable to arrive to a polling district to vote on election day. A municipal electoral committee shall organise voters' voting in advance. Voting in advance must be conducted from 8 am to 8 pm on the Wednesday and Thursday preceding an election day, in the premises prepared beforehand and fitted for voting, which are situated in the building in which a workplace of mayor (director of the administration) of that municipality is located. In order to hand out and accept ballot papers and postal voting envelopes when voting in advance, the chairman of a municipal electoral committee shall appoint not less than 2 members of a municipal electoral committee or district electoral committees who may not be proposed by the same political party. Voting in advance shall be supervised by the chairman of a municipal electoral committee or, upon his instruction, a member of the municipal electoral committee.

3. Voters' requests for voting at home shall be submitted to polling district committees. The committees shall begin to accept requests of voters, residing within the territory of a concrete polling district, for voting at home by handing voter certificates to such voters and end accepting the requests on the Thursday preceding an election day. Accepting of requests for voting at home of voters who temporarily stay within the territory of a concrete polling district and have not been entered on the electoral roll of this polling district shall end on the Tuesday preceding an election day. A voter who because of his physical handicaps or disability is unable to fill in a request for voting at home or to hand it to a polling district committee, may authorise his family member, neighbour or a person who takes care of him to carry out the said actions for him. These persons shall sign the voter's request and indicate their name, surname and personal number.

4. On the Thursday preceding an election day a polling district committee shall draw up and approve a roll of voters voting at home who are entered on the electoral roll of that polling district. On the Wednesday preceding an election day a municipal electoral committee shall draw up and approve a roll of voters who reside or temporarily stay within the territory of a concrete polling district but have been entered on the electoral roll of another polling district and have not been entered on the electoral roll of this polling district when revising them.

5. On the Friday or Saturday preceding an election day, from 8 am to 8 pm at least two members of a polling district committee shall deliver postal voting envelopes and ballot papers to the homes of the voters who have been entered on the roll of the polling district voters voting at home and who are the voters of this polling district. On the Thursday preceding an election day at least two members of a municipal electoral committee or, by order of its chairman, at least two members of a polling district committee shall deliver postal voting envelopes and ballot papers to the homes of the voters who have been entered on the electoral roll of the municipal voters voting at home, but who have not been entered on the electoral roll of the polling district within the territory of which they temporarily stay. Voting at home and voting in advance may be observed by election observers who have a certificate to observe elections in any polling district. After the completion of voting, sealed return envelopes shall be transferred to the post office which shall transfer them to polling districts together with election documents of voters who voted by post. Lists of voters who voted at home and in advance, ballot papers which were not used, shall be included into the accounting and preserved by the electoral committees which organised voting. After the end of elections such committees shall transfer the said documents together with other elections documents to an appropriate municipal electoral committee or the Central Electoral Commission.

6. A concrete schedule of electoral committee members' coming to the homes of voters shall be approved by the chairman of a polling district or municipal committee not later than, respectively, in the Wednesday or Thursday preceding the noon of an election day. This schedule shall be made public; its copy shall be posted up on the billboard of the polling district (municipal) electoral committee on the day of approval of the schedule. Only the electoral committee members and election observers proposed by different political parties may come together to the homes of the voters.

7. The provisions of paragraphs 6 and 7 of Article 57 of this Law shall apply to voting at home and early voting.

8. The sealed return envelope (with the voter certificate, ballot paper envelope and ballot papers in it) the voter shall hand to a member of the polling district (municipal) electoral committee. Upon having received the return envelope handed by the voter, he shall give the voter a receipt confirming the acceptance of this envelope.

9. When a voter votes at home or carries out early voting, it shall be prohibited to exert influence on his determination and to hasten his voting. Committee members shall be prohibited from carrying out the actions for a voter, referred to in paragraphs 6 and 7 of Article 57 of this Law, as well as from accepting an unsealed return envelope from a voter. Voters shall be prohibited from taking out ballot papers or giving them to other persons.

CHAPTER NINE

COUNTING OF VOTES AND ESTABLISHMENT OF ELECTION RESULTS

Article 65. Counting of Postal Voting Envelopes and Ballot Papers in Post Offices

1. The procedure for counting postal voting envelopes and ballot papers in the Republic of Lithuania shall be laid down and this accounting shall be administered by the Central Electoral Commission.

2. Accounting of postal voting envelopes and ballot papers, their issuing and acceptance when voting shall managed by the heads of appropriate post offices. They shall indicate accounting data in a journal specially designated for this purpose. Accounting of postal voting envelopes and ballot papers for voting by post, used when voting in military units stationed abroad, their issuing and acceptance when voting shall managed by the commanders of those military units. They shall transfer to the Central Electoral Commission accounting data pertaining to election documents, unused postal voting envelopes, ballot papers and postal voting envelopes with ballot papers marked by voters. The Central Electoral Commission shall, not alter than until an election day, transfer the received postal voting envelopes with the ballot papers marked by voters to the committee of a polling district on the electoral roll of which a voter has been entered.

3. The post office head shall deliver unused postal voting envelopes and ballot papers to the municipal electoral committee one day prior to an election day.

4. The head of a post office or a person authorised by him shall deliver postal voting envelopes containing ballot papers marked by voters to polling district committees on the election day, but not later than 2 hours before the closing of the polls.

5. Return envelopes, unused and damaged ballot papers of voters who voted on the Thursday preceding an election day, shall be transferred to a municipal electoral committee by the members of the electoral committees who went to the homes of the voters pursuant to the provisions of Article 64 of this Law. The municipal electoral committee shall not alter than on the Friday preceding an election day transfer return envelopes to a post office.

6. Return envelopes, unused and damaged ballot papers of voters who voted on the Friday or Saturday preceding an election day, shall be transferred to the chairman of a polling district committee not later than 9 pm of the same day. Having checked the received election papers, the polling district committee shall decide whether or not voting at home has met the requirements of this Law.

7. Return envelopes shall be kept together with ballot papers.

8. Before starting to count the votes, return envelopes of voters who voted by post shall be put together with return envelopes of voters who voted at home, mixed and counted together according to Article 68 of this Law and in the same manner as the votes received by post.

Article 66. Keeping of Records of Ballot Papers in Polling Stations

1. Upon the closing of a polling station the chairperson of the electoral committee of the polling district, in the presence of at least $\frac{3}{5}$ of the members of the electoral committee, shall close and seal the ballot-box slot, collect unused ballot-papers from each member of the electoral committee of the polling district, count them publicly, record the number of unused ballot-papers in the vote calculation record, and verify, according to signatures in the electoral roll, voter certificates, if all ballot-papers have been handed lawfully.

2. The polling district electoral committee shall count the unused and spoiled ballot papers publicly; annul them by cutting off the upper right corner; put them into the envelopes specially designated for this purpose and seal these envelopes. The number of unused and faulty ballot-papers shall be entered in the vote calculation record.

Article 67. Counting of Votes of the Voters who Have Voted in the Polling Station of the Polling District

1. The electoral committee of the polling district, in the presence of at least $\frac{3}{5}$ of its members, shall inspect the ballot- box of the polling district to: ensure that the seals have not been broken, that there is no other evidence which indicates that it could have been opened or that ballot-papers could have been removed in any other way. The electoral committee of the polling district, in the presence of at least $\frac{3}{5}$ of its members, shall decide if the ballot box has been tampered with. If the electoral committee of the polling district decides that the ballot-box was tampered with, an act shall be drawn up about this and votes shall not be calculated.

2. Upon ascertainment that the ballot-box was not tampered with and in the presence of at least $\frac{3}{5}$ of the members of the electoral committee of the polling district as well as observers, the box shall be opened, all ballot-papers shall be placed on tables (any other documents and writing-materials must not be present on the tables), and the votes shall be counted.

3. Votes shall be calculated in such a way that this procedure, marks made by voters in ballot-papers may be observed by all persons present during the calculation of votes. The Central Electoral Commission shall establish the concrete procedure for the calculation of votes.

4. The number of the voters of the polling district shall be established according to the electoral roll of the polling district. The number of voters who have been handed ballot-papers shall be established according to the electoral rolls testifying the receipt of the ballot-paper. The number of voters who have voted in the polling district shall be established according to the number of ballot-papers found in the ballot-box of the polling district. The number of voters who have participated in the elections shall be established according to the number of ballot-papers found in ballot-boxes of the polling districts and the number of ballot-papers received by post.

5. Upon finding more ballot-papers in the ballot-box than were handed to the voters, the electoral committee of the polling district shall take measures to clarify the reason.

6. The results of the vote calculation shall be entered in the vote calculation records.

Article 68. Keeping of the Records of Voters who Have Voted by Envelopes and the Counting of their Votes

1. After the counting of ballot papers found in the ballot box, ballot papers received by post and at homes shall be calculated in the following procedure:

1) the chairman of the polling district committee shall present unopened all return envelopes received by post and at homes. Their number shall be announced and entered in the vote counting record;
