STOP TRAFFICKING IN HUMAN BEINGS
USEFUL INFORMATION FOR IDENTIFICATION, ASSISTANCE AND PROTECTION OF VICTIMS
THE NOTION OF TRAFFICKING IN HUMAN BEINGS

The definition of human trafficking pursuant to the Article 175 of the Criminal Code of the Republic of Croatia is as follows:

“Any person who in violation of the provisions of the international law by the use of force, or by threatening to use force, by fraud, abduction, abuse of a position of helplessness or power, or in any such other manner recruits, buys, sells, delivers, transports, transfers, induces or mediates in buying, selling or delivering, or harbours or receives a person for the purpose of establishing slavery or any such similar relationship, forced labour or servitude, sexual exploitation, prostitution or illegal transplantation of human body parts, or who holds a person in slavery or any such similar relationship, shall be sentenced to imprisonment for a period of one to ten years.

Any person who in violation of the provisions of the international law recruits, buys, sells, delivers, transports, transfers, induces or mediates in buying, selling or delivering, harbours or receives a child or a minor for the purpose of establishing slavery or any such similar relationship, or forced labour or servitude, sexual exploitation, prostitution or illegal transplantation of human body parts, or who holds a child or a minor in slavery or any such similar relationship shall be sentenced to imprisonment for a minimum period of five years.
Where the criminal act from Paragraphs 1 and 2 hereof has been committed within a group or a criminal organisation or against a larger number of persons, or has caused the death of one or more persons, the perpetrator shall be sentenced to imprisonment for a minimum period of five years or to long-term imprisonment."

Pursuant to the Protocol to Prevent, Suppress and Punish Trafficking in Persons, Especially Women and Children, supplementing the United Nations Convention against Transnational Organized Crime, trafficking in human beings is defined as follows: recruitment, transportation, organisation of transfer, harbouring or receiving of persons, by means of threat or use of force or other forms of coercion, of abduction, of fraud, of deception, of the abuse of power or of a position of vulnerability or giving or receiving of payments or benefits to achieve the consent of a person having control over another persons, for the purpose of exploitation. Pursuant to this Protocol the exploitation includes: prostitution or other forms of sexual exploitation, forced labour or services, slavery or any such practices similar to slavery, servitude or removal of organs.

It is therefore evident from both stated definitions that basic human rights are violated by trafficking in human beings. The key element of human trafficking is not in the nature of work or relationship, but in humiliating circumstances of such work. It can be said that it is always a question of human trafficking if a person has not consented by his/her own will to such humiliating working conditions. Trafficking in human beings is not limited to prostitution alone. Victims of human trafficking can be recruited into a number of other activities. It is also necessary to point out that an illegal border transition is not necessarily an element of trafficking. An important element that defines human trafficking is the fact that the victim of human trafficking is transferred to unknown environment where he/she is isolated from his/her narrower community. In such environment the victim is physically isolated and exposed to maltreatment, violence and exploitation, domination and discrimination by traffickers in human beings.

Due to the aforementioned, it is extremely important that persons who come into contact with victims of trafficking in human beings realise that that person has been deeply traumatised and therefore he/she should be provided with immediate protection. It is therefore necessary to react immediately and notify all competent institutions, whose list is included within this booklet, in order to provide assistance and protection to victims of human trafficking in an appropriate manner.

DIRECTIVE

ON RESIDENCE PERMITS FOR VICTIMS OF HUMAN TRAFFICKING

This Directive regulates the manner in which residence of victims of trafficking in human beings is regulated, as one of the ways of providing assistance and protection within the frames of implementation of the total national strategy for combating human trafficking.

The notion of residence regulation for identified victims of human trafficking in this Directive implicitly includes the permit for temporary residence for foreign citizens and regulating the issue of residence / domicile for citizens of the Republic of Croatia.

In congruence with the adopted national procedure for the identification of victims of human trafficking, the police departments will inform the Crime Directorate in the Ministry’s headquarters of the identified victim of trafficking in human beings. The Crime Directorate shall deliver information on the victim to the Directorate for Inspections and Administrative Affairs in the Ministry's headquarters, whose further actions will depend on whether the victim of human trafficking is a foreigner or a citizen of the Republic of Croatia.
VICTIM - A FOREIGN CITIZEN

If the victim of trafficking in human beings has entered the Republic of Croatia in an illegal way or resides there illegally, the police departments have to conduct a preliminary investigation of the facts and circumstances that exclude or diminish offense and/or criminal liability during the victim identification process.

If the victim is a foreign citizen, the Directorate for Inspections and Administrative Affairs will order to the competent police department to grant temporary residence for humanitarian reasons and to issue an identity card for a foreigner. The identity card for foreigners is issued as regulated by the Croatian Aliens Act and the by-laws.

The application for temporary residence permit for humanitarian reasons is submitted by the victim of human trafficking in person accompanied by a representative of the institution providing assistance and protection (e.g. International Organisation for Migration or a nongovernmental organisation), i.e. the Ministry of Health and Social Welfare if the victim is a child or a minor. In any of the instances the application form for the issuance of the temporary residence permit must be signed by the victim of human trafficking or the legal guardian of the child or the minor.

In attachment to the application for the temporary residence permit there must be a photograph, a copy of a valid travel document or other identification document, and an official letter from the legal person providing help and protection to the victim.

In the instances of human trafficking victim who does not have an identification document or if the person’s identity is questionable, personal facts (first and last name, etc.) provided by the person are being used in the procedure until the establishment of true facts.
If the age of the identified human trafficking victim cannot be established with certainty, and there is a reasonable doubt that the person in question is a child or a minor, the procedure is conducted as though the person is a child or a minor, for special protection of the child or the minor.

Temporary residence for humanitarian reasons will be granted with the expiry date up to one year in congruence with Article 35 of the Aliens Act.

It is to be mentioned that the provisions of Articles 18, 31 and 34 of the Aliens Act apply to this category of foreigners as well. Therefore the application for the issuance of temporary residence permit is to be submitted immediately and no later than 90 days after entry into the Republic of Croatia.

The procedure involving a child or a minor is considered an emergency procedure.

The temporary residence permit is attached to the travel document of the foreigner as an adhesive label, and if the foreigner does not possess a valid travel document, the approval for temporary residence is granted through a formal decision.

An application for the extension of the temporary residence permit is submitted prior to the expiry of the valid temporary residence permit. The procedure regarding the temporary residence extension follows the same procedure as for the original temporary residence permit.

In cases when the foreigner’s presence is no longer necessary in the procedure, the police department will issue, with the approval of the Directorate for Inspections and Administrative Affairs, a foreigner’s travel document for the person’s return to the country of victim’s origin. This is used in cases when the victim of human trafficking does not possess a valid travel document, and the country of the person’s citizenship neither has its diplomatic mission, i.e. the consulate in the Republic of Croatia, nor its interests are being represented by another country, i.e. a foreigner’s travel document can be issued to another foreigner if there are justifiable reasons thereof. The application for the issuance of a travel document is submitted by the foreigner in person, accompanied by the representative of the institution providing assistance and protection, i.e. the Ministry of Health and Social Welfare if the victim is a child or a minor.

Legal regulations on protection of information are obligatorily applied in all procedures involving the victim of trafficking in human beings, in order to ensure the protection of privacy and identity of human trafficking victims.

The competent police department will inform the Directorate for Inspections and Administrative Affairs without delay of all important facts and circumstances relevant for the status of the victim of human trafficking who is a foreigner, and the Directorate will order an extension or cessation of the status.

VICTIM - A CROATIAN CITIZEN

If the victim of human trafficking is a Croatian citizen, the Directorate for Inspections and Administrative Affairs will order the competent police department to register the person’s domicile to a specified address and to issue an identity card, if the person does not possess one.

Administrative fees

In congruence with the Article 7 of the Act on Administrative Fees the person who is proven to be of low-income shall be exempted from the obligation of paying the administrative fee.

1. IDENTIFICATION OF VICTIMS

The identification of victims of human trafficking can be conducted by following bodies:

- the Ministry of the Interior,
- the Ministry competent for social welfare affairs,
- nongovernmental organisations and the International Organisation for Migration (IOM),
- other international organisations.

After a person has been identified by the aforementioned institutions as a victim of trafficking in human beings, these institutions are obliged to inform the Ministry of the Interior and the national coordinator for the suppression of human trafficking of the conducted identification.

2. ASSISTANCE TO VICTIMS AND PROTECTION OF VICTIMS

After the victim has been identified by the relevant institution, the victim of human trafficking is taken over at the place of the identification by representatives of the Ministry competent for social welfare affairs, representatives of nongovernmental organisations or representatives of the International Organisation for Migration (IOM). After the victim has been taken over by the institution, the institution will provide a comprehensive program of assistance and protection for the victim. If the victim of human trafficking is a minor or a child, the care for the victim is always taken over by the Ministry competent for social welfare affairs. All representatives of the said institutions who provide assistance and protection to the victim must have special training for providing such help and protection. When being interviewed by the employees of the mentioned institutions, the victim must be informed about all foreseen activities related to the program for assistance and protection, which has been designed on the basis of the National Program for the Suppression of Trafficking in Persons 2005 - 2008. The program of providing assistance and protection to victims of human trafficking comprises safe accommodation, psychological, social, medical and legal assistance. The victim must be informed about the right to regulate the status of temporary residence in the Republic of Croatia and of all the conditions necessary to regulate the status of temporary residence in the Republic of Croatia. All institutions directly providing the program of help and protection have to inform the Ministry of the Interior instantly if the victim refuses the offered program of help and protection. The procedure of help and protection requires urgency and secrecy. In order to satisfy the requirement for urgency of the procedure, the aforementioned authorised bodies in charge of providing assistance and protection to victims have designated a contact person available by telephone for 24 hours a day. The victim's transportation to the safe accommodation shall be organised by the Ministry competent for social welfare, the International Organisation for Migration (IOM) or nongovernmental institutions. The safe accommodation provides the victim with all necessary assistance and protection - psychological, social, medical, legal that will be provided based on a previously designed individual program of assistance and protection, issued by the Ministry competent for social welfare in cooperation with the competent nongovernmental organisation.

3. SAFE ACCOMMODATION

On the territory of the Republic of Croatia there is an official safe shelter for victims of trafficking in human beings. The official shelter is constituted in line with the latest international standards. The Ministry competent for social welfare has to enter into a cooperation contract with the non-governmental organisation conducting the shelter and providing assistance and protection to the victim. For the sake of safety of the persons in the shelter the competent police department will perform, if necessary, intensified police patrolling in the area surrounding the shelter. Experts especially trained for providing assistance and protection to victims of human trafficking must be included in the activities of the shelter. If the victim does not want to be accommodated in the official shelter, the accommodation will be provided in an alternative safe shelter. In the alternative safe shelter the victim will receive the same help and protection as provided in the official shelter.
4. PLANNING OF ASSISTANCE AND RETURN OF FOREIGN CITIZENS - VICTIMS OF HUMAN TRAFFICKING.

For the sake of safe return of a foreign citizen - the victim of human trafficking it is necessary to establish contact with families, competent bodies of state administration, international organisations in the country of origin, in order to enable the victim to return safely to the country of origin and in order to provide all necessary assistance and protection to the victim in the country of origin. The return of the human trafficking victim can be made possible only if the competent body decides that the terms for the safe return have been met. If the victim of human trafficking does not possess necessary personal documentation, the institution authorised for providing help and protection has to participate in the procedure of issuing the document, i.e. travel document. In these affairs the institutions authorised for providing assistance and protection (the Ministry competent for social welfare, nongovernmental organisations, the International Organisation for Migration) cooperate, if necessary, with other authorised bodies and ministries. It is necessary to provide the safe return to the country of origin including a security escort for the victim of human trafficking when deemed necessary. After the arrival of the victim to the country of origin it is necessary to establish whether the victim has successfully arrived and how he/she has been taken care of.
5. PROVIDING PROTECTION AND ASSISTANCE TO THE VICTIMS OF HUMAN TRAFFICKING, CITIZENS OF THE REPUBLIC OF CROATIA

The victim of human trafficking, a Croatian citizen, should be provided with accommodation in the safe shelter or any other alternative safe accommodation, if the person does not have a place to stay or does not want to return to the family. If the victim of human trafficking does not have a regulated domicile at specified address, the Ministry of the Interior of the Republic of Croatia will regulate the person’s domicile and issue the identity card. In the procedure of submitting the application for the issuance of the identity card and the regulation of the domicile the victim of human trafficking will be accompanied by representatives of the aforementioned institutions authorised for rendering assistance and protection to victims. If the victim is accommodated in the safe shelter, the victim will be able to, if and when needed, visit the institutions of the safe accommodation in order to receive daily, weekly or monthly psychological and social help, healthcare services or legal assistance.
