This Law shall determine the area of competence, the format and the mode of conducting activities, as well as the procedure for election and dismissal of the Ombudsman (Akyikatchy) of the Kyrgyz Republic.

Chapter I. General provisions
Article 1. Control by the Ombudsman (Akyikatchy) over execution of the constitutional human and civil rights and freedoms.

Control over execution of the constitutional human and civil rights and freedoms in the territory of the Kyrgyz Republic to the extent of its jurisdiction shall be exercised by the Ombudsman (Akyikatchy) of the Kyrgyz Republic who shall be guided in her/his activities by the Constitution, this law as well as other laws of the Kyrgyz Republic, international agreements and treaties ratified by the Kyrgyz Republic, as well as universally recognized principles and standards of the international law.
Article 2. Area of application of this law

This law shall apply to the relations arising through the implementation of human and civil rights and freedoms only between a citizen of the Kyrgyz Republic, regardless of his/her location, a foreign citizen or a stateless person in the territory of the Kyrgyz Republic and bodies of the public administration, local government and officials thereof.

Article 3. Goals of the control by the Ombudsman (Akyikatchy) over execution of the constitutional human and civil rights and freedoms.

The goal for the control by the Ombudsman (Akyikatchy) is as follows:

1) protection of human and civil rights and freedoms, pronounced in the Constitution of the Kyrgyz Republic and laws of the Kyrgyz Republic, international agreements and treaties ratified by the Kyrgyz Republic;

2) compliance with and respect to the human and civil rights and freedoms on the part of entities, mentioned in the article 2 of this law;

3) prevention of violations of human and civil rights and freedoms or assistance in the recovery of rights and freedoms;

4) assistance in harmonizing the legislation of the Kyrgyz Republic on the human and civil rights and freedoms with the Constitution of the Kyrgyz Republic and international standards in this area;

5) improvement and further development of the international cooperation in the area of protection of human and civil rights and freedoms;

6) prevention of any forms of discrimination against execution of rights and freedoms by an individual;

7) promotion of legal information among the population and protection of the confidential information about private persons.

Chapter II. Principles for the election and dismissal of the Ombudsman (Akyikatchy)

Article 4. Requirements for a candidate for the position of Ombudsman (Akyikatchy) and election of the Ombudsman (Akyikatchy)

1. Any citizen of the Kyrgyz Republic may be elected as the Ombudsman (Akyikatchy).

2. A person convicted for commitment of a crime may not be elected as the Ombudsman (Akyikatchy) unless such conviction has been discharged or removed in accordance with the law.

3. The President of the Kyrgyz Republic, factions of deputies, groups of deputies of the Legislative Assembly and the Assembly of People's representatives of the Jogorku Kenesh of the Kyrgyz Republic that consist of at least 7 persons who are not members of any faction, as well as political parties and civil associations shall have the right to make nominations for a position of the Ombudsman (Akyikatchy) of the Kyrgyz Republic to the Legislative Assembly of the Jogorku Kenesh of the Kyrgyz Republic.
