

Law on Youth (Official Gazette of the Republic of Serbia No 50/2011)

...

Article 5

The Principle of Equality and Prohibition of Discrimination

All young people shall be equal.

It shall be prohibited to differentiate or unequally treat young people, whether directly or indirectly, on the grounds of race, gender, nationality, religion, language, social origin, property, membership in political parties and other organizations, mental or physical disability, health status, physical appearance, sexual orientation, gender identity and other real or assumed personal characteristic.

Article 6

The Principle of Equal Opportunity

Young people shall have the right on equal opportunities and participation in all spheres of social life in line with their own choices and capacities.

...