Article 108. Nomination of candidates for a deputy to the National Assembly under the proportional electoral system

2. Each political party, alliance of political parties shall have the right to nominate only one electoral list of candidates. A political party included in an alliance of political parties shall have no right to nominate a separate electoral list on its own behalf. The number of representatives of each gender must not exceed the 80% of each integer group of five candidates (2-6, 2-11, 2-16 and subsequently till the end of the list) starting from the second number of the electoral list of a political party, of an alliance of political parties and of each of the parties included in an alliance for the elections to the National Assembly under the proportional electoral system. At least 25 candidates shall be included in the electoral list presented by a political party, an alliance of a political party for the elections to the National Assembly under the proportional electoral system. The number of candidates included in the electoral list of a political party may not exceed the three-fold of the number defined by this Code for the number of mandates of deputies of the National Assembly under the proportional electoral system. Other persons not being members of a political party may also be included in the electoral list of that political party.

Article 110. Rejection of registration of an electoral list of a political party or a candidate included therein

1. The Central Electoral Commission shall reject the registration of the electoral list of a political party, an alliance of political parties if:

(1) submitted documents are incomplete or falsified;

(2) the electoral list does not meet the requirements defined by Article 108(2) of this Code;

(3) the political party has been dissolved;

(4) the number of political parties included in the alliance of political parties falls below two;

(5) activities of the political party have been suspended or prohibited.

2. In case an objection is raised by a member of the Central Electoral Commission with respect to the registration of the electoral list of the political party, the alliance of political parties, the objection shall be put to vote. The registration of the electoral list shall be rejected by the decision adopted by at least two thirds of votes of the total number of members of the Commission.
3. The Central Electoral Commission shall reject the registration of a candidate included in the electoral list of a political party, if:

(1) the candidate does not have the right to be elected;

(2) documents submitted thereon are incomplete or falsified.

4. In case an objection is raised by a member of the Central Electoral Commission with respect to the registration of a candidate included in the electoral list of the political party, the objection shall be put to vote. The registration of a candidate included in the electoral list of a political party shall be rejected by the decision adopted by at least two thirds of votes of the total number of members of the Commission.

(…)