Matters subject to investigation

3 General remit of Commissioners.

(1) On a complaint duly made to a Commissioner by or on behalf of a person that he has sustained injustice or hardship in consequence of—
   (a) a failure in a service provided by a health service body,
   (b) a failure of such a body to provide a service which it was a function of the body to provide, or
   (c) maladministration connected with any other action taken by or on behalf of such a body,
the Commissioner may, subject to the provisions of this Act, investigate the alleged failure or other action.

[F29(1YA) In the case of the Assembly the Health Service Commissioner for Wales may only conduct an investigation in respect of—
   (a) a failure in a service provided by the Assembly in the exercise of a function of the Assembly relating to the National Health Service (an “Assembly health service function”),
   (b) a failure of the Assembly to provide a service the provision of which is an Assembly health service function, or
   (c) maladministration connected with any other action taken by or on behalf of the Assembly in the exercise of an Assembly health service function.]

[F30(1ZA) Any failure or maladministration mentioned in subsection (1) may arise from action of—
   (a) the health service body,
   (b) a person employed by that body,
(c) a person acting on behalf of that body, or
(d) a person to whom that body has delegated any functions.]

[F31 (1A) Where a family health service provider has undertaken to provide any family health services and a complaint is duly made to a Commissioner by or on behalf of a person that he has sustained injustice or hardship in consequence of—
(a) action taken by the family health service provider in connection with the services,
(b) action taken in connection with the services by a person employed by the family health service provider in respect of the services,
(c) action taken in connection with the services by a person acting on behalf of the family health service provider in respect of the services, or
(d) action taken in connection with the services by a person to whom the family health service provider has delegated any functions in respect of the services, the Commissioner may, subject to the provisions of this Act, investigate the alleged action.

F32 (1B) ........................................

(1C) Where an independent provider has made an arrangement with a health service body or a family health service provider to provide a service (of whatever kind) and a complaint is duly made to a Commissioner by or on behalf of a person that he has sustained injustice or hardship in consequence of—
(a) a failure in the service provided by the independent provider,
(b) a failure of the independent provider to provide the service, or
(c) maladministration connected with any other action taken in relation to the service, the Commissioner may, subject to the provisions of this Act, investigate the alleged failure or other action.

(1D) Any failure or maladministration mentioned in subsection (1C) may arise from action of—
(a) the independent provider,
(b) a person employed by the provider,
(c) a person acting on behalf of the provider, or
(d) a person to whom the provider has delegated any functions.]

(2) In determining whether to initiate, continue or discontinue an investigation under this Act, a Commissioner shall act in accordance with his own discretion.

(3) Any question whether a complaint is duly made to a Commissioner shall be determined by him.

(4) Nothing in this Act authorises or requires a Commissioner to question the merits of a decision taken without maladministration by a health service body in the exercise of a discretion vested in that body.

[F33 (5) Nothing in this Act authorises or requires a Commissioner to question the merits of a decision taken without maladministration by—
(a) a family health service provider,
(b) a person employed by a family health service provider,
(c) a person acting on behalf of a family health service provider, or
(d) a person to whom a family health service provider has delegated any functions.

(6) Nothing in this Act authorises or requires a Commissioner to question the merits of a decision taken without maladministration by—

(a) an independent provider,
(b) a person employed by an independent provider,
(c) a person acting on behalf of an independent provider, or
(d) a person to whom an independent provider has delegated any functions.]

[F34(7) Subsections (4) to (6) do not apply to the merits of a decision to the extent that it was taken in consequence of the exercise of clinical judgment.]
(a) action by reference to which a complaint is made under section 3(1), (1A) or (1C) is action by reference to which a complaint can be made under a procedure operated by a health service body, a family health service provider or an independent provider, and
(b) subsection (1), (2) or (3) does not apply as regards the action.

(5) In such a case a Commissioner shall not conduct an investigation in respect of the action unless he is satisfied that—
(a) the other procedure has been invoked and exhausted, or
(b) in the particular circumstances it is not reasonable to expect that procedure to be invoked or (as the case may be) exhausted.

(6) Section 1(2) of the M6 Hospital Complaints Procedure Act 1985 (which provides that no right of appeal etc. conferred under section 1 of that Act is to preclude an investigation under this Act) shall have effect subject to subsection (5) above.

7 Personnel, contracts etc.

(1) A Commissioner shall not conduct an investigation in respect of action taken in respect of appointments or removals, pay, discipline, superannuation or other personnel matters in relation to service under the National Health Service Act 1977 or the National Health Service (Scotland) Act 1978 or the National Health Service and Community Care Act 1990 or service as a member of the staff of the Assembly.

(2) A Commissioner shall not conduct an investigation in respect of action taken in matters relating to contractual or other commercial transactions, except for—

\(\text{[F42]}\)
(a) matters relating to NHS contracts (as defined by section 4 of the National Health Service and Community Care Act 1990 and, in relation to Scotland, by section 17A of the National Health Service (Scotland) Act 1978),

\(\text{[F43]}\)
(b) matters arising from arrangements between a health service body and an independent provider for the provision of services by the provider,

\(\text{[F44]}\)
(c) matters arising from arrangements between a family health service provider and an independent provider for the provision of services by the independent provider.
(3) In determining what matters arise from arrangements mentioned in subsection (2) (b) the Health Service Commissioners for England and for Wales shall disregard any arrangements for the provision of services at an establishment maintained by a Minister of the Crown mainly for patients who are members of the armed forces of the Crown.

F47 A Commissioner shall not conduct an investigation in pursuance of a complaint if—
(a) the complaint is in respect of action taken in any matter relating to arrangements made by a health service body and a family health service provider for the provision of family health services,
(b) the action is taken by or on behalf of the body or by the provider, and
(c) the complaint is made by the provider or the body.]

F48 Nothing in the preceding provisions of this section prevents a Commissioner conducting an investigation in respect of action taken by a health service body in operating a procedure established to examine complaints.

(4) Her Majesty may by Order in Council amend this section so as to permit the investigation by a Commissioner of any of the matters mentioned in subsection (1) or (2).

(5) A statutory instrument containing an Order in Council made by virtue of subsection (4) shall be subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament.

A Commissioner shall not conduct an investigation in respect of action taken by the Mental Welfare Commission for Scotland under section 33 (orders for discharge of hospital patients) [F50] or section 73 of the Adults with Incapacity (Scotland) Act 2000.]
Complaints

8 Individuals and bodies entitled to complain.

(1) A complaint under this Act may be made by an individual or a body of persons, whether incorporated or not, other than a public authority.

(2) In subsection (1), “public authority” means—

(a) a local authority or other authority or body constituted for the purposes of the public service or of local government \[F52\] (including the Assembly),

(b) an authority or body constituted for the purposes of carrying on under national ownership any industry or undertaking or part of an industry or undertaking, and

(c) any other authority or body—

(i) whose members are appointed by Her Majesty or any Minister of the Crown or government department \[F53\] or by the Assembly, or

(ii) whose revenues consist wholly or mainly of money provided by Parliament \[F54\] or out of the Scottish Consolidated Fund\[F55\] or the Assembly.

9 Requirements to be complied with.

(1) The following requirements apply in relation to a complaint made to a Commissioner.

(2) A complaint must be made in writing.

(3) The complaint shall not be entertained unless it is made—

(a) by the person aggrieved, or
(b) where the person by whom a complaint might have been made has died or is for any reason unable to act for himself, by—
   (i) his personal representative,
   (ii) a member of his family, or
   (iii) some body or individual suitable to represent him.

(4) The Commissioner shall not entertain the complaint if it is made more than a year after the day on which the person aggrieved first had notice of the matters alleged in the complaint, unless he considers it reasonable to do so.

\[(4A)\] In the case of a complaint against a person who is no longer of a description set out in section 2A(1) or (2), but was of such a description at the time of the action complained of, the Commissioner shall not entertain the complaint if it is made more than three years after the last day on which the person was a family health service provider.

\[(4B)\] In the case of a complaint against a person falling within section 2B(1) or (2) in relation to whom there are no longer any such arrangements as are mentioned there, the Commissioner shall not entertain the complaint if it is made more than three years after the last day on which the person was an independent provider.\]

Referral of complaint by health service body.

(1) A health service body may itself refer to a Commissioner a complaint made to that body that a person has, in consequence of a failure or maladministration for which the body is responsible, sustained such injustice or hardship as is mentioned in section 3(1).

(2) A complaint may not be so referred unless it was made—
   (a) in writing,
   (b) by the person aggrieved or by a person authorised by section 9(3)(b) to complain to the Commissioner on his behalf, and
   (c) not more than a year after the person aggrieved first had notice of the matters alleged in the complaint, or such later date as the Commissioner considers appropriate in any particular case.

\[(2A)\] The Assembly may only refer a complaint under this section if it is in respect of a matter which the Health Service Commissioner for Wales can investigate by virtue of section 3(1YA).\]

(3) A health service body may not refer a complaint under this section after the period of one year beginning with the day on which the body received the complaint.
(4) Any question whether a complaint has been duly referred to a Commissioner under this section shall be determined by him.

(5) A complaint referred to a Commissioner under this section shall be deemed to be duly made to him.

Investigations

11 Procedure in respect of investigations.

(1) Where a Commissioner proposes to conduct an investigation pursuant to a complaint under [F59 section 3(1)], he shall afford—
   (a) to the health service body concerned, and
   (b) to any other person who is alleged in the complaint to have taken or authorised the action complained of,
   an opportunity to comment on any allegations contained in the complaint.

[F60 (1A)] Where a Commissioner proposes to conduct an investigation pursuant to a complaint under section 3(1A), he shall afford—
   (a) to the family health service provider, and
   (b) to any person by reference to whose action the complaint is made (if different from the family health service provider), an opportunity to comment on any allegations contained in the complaint.

(1B) Where a Commissioner proposes to conduct an investigation pursuant to a complaint under section 3(1C), he shall afford—
   (a) to the independent provider concerned, and
   (b) to any other person who is alleged in the complaint to have taken or authorised the action complained of,
   an opportunity to comment on any allegations contained in the complaint.

(2) An investigation shall be conducted in private.

(3) In other respects, the procedure for conducting an investigation shall be such as the Commissioner considers appropriate in the circumstances of the case, and in particular
   (a) he may obtain information from such persons and in such manner, and make such inquiries, as he thinks fit, and
   (b) he may determine whether any person may be represented, by counsel or solicitor or otherwise, in the investigation.

(4) A Commissioner may, if he thinks fit, pay to the person by whom the complaint was made and to any other person who attends or supplies information for the purposes of an investigation—
(a) sums in respect of expenses properly incurred by them, and
(b) allowances by way of compensation for the loss of their time.

Payments [F64] made by the Health Service Commissioner for England or the Health Service Commissioner for Scotland [under this subsection shall be in accordance with such scales and subject to such conditions as may be determined by the Treasury [F62]; and payments made by the Health Service Commissioner for Wales under this subsection shall be in accordance with such scales and subject to such conditions as may be determined by him.]

(5) The conduct of an investigation [F63] pursuant to a complaint under section 3(1) shall not affect any action taken by the health service body concerned, or any power or duty of that body to take further action with respect to any matters subject to the investigation.

[F64] The conduct of an investigation pursuant to a complaint under section 3(1A) or (1C) shall not affect any action taken by the family health service provider or independent provider concerned, or any power or duty of that provider to take further action with respect to any matters subject to the investigation.

(6) Where the person aggrieved has been removed from the United Kingdom under any order in force under the [M18] Immigration Act 1971 he shall, if the Commissioner so directs, be permitted to re-enter and remain in the United Kingdom, subject to such conditions as the Secretary of State may direct, for the purposes of the investigation.

[F85] 14B Action in response to reports by Welsh Commissioner.

(1) Where the Assembly First Secretary receives a copy of a report under section 14A(1), he shall send a copy of it to any Assembly Secretary who is accountable to the Assembly (in accordance with section 56 of the Government of Wales Act 1998) for the exercise of any functions of the Assembly relating to the National Health Service.

(2) Where in a report under section 14A(1) the Health Service Commissioner for Wales states that the person aggrieved has sustained such injustice or hardship as is mentioned in section 3(1), (1A) or (1C), any body or provider subject to the investigation shall consider the report and within—
(a) the period of three months beginning with the date on which the body or provider received the report, or
(b) such longer period as the Commissioner may agree in writing, shall notify the Commissioner of the action taken or proposed to be taken.

(3) The Health Service Commissioner for Wales shall prepare a further report if he—
(a) does not receive the notification required by subsection (2) within the period allowed by or under that subsection,
(b) is not satisfied with the action taken or proposed to be taken, or
(c) does not within the period of three months beginning with the end of the period allowed by or under subsection (2), or such longer period as the Commissioner may agree in writing, receive confirmation from the body or provider that action has been taken, as proposed, to his satisfaction.

(4) The further report shall set out those facts and make such recommendations as the Health Service Commissioner for Wales thinks fit to make with respect to action which, in his opinion, should be taken—
(a) to remedy the injustice or hardship to the person aggrieved, and
(b) to prevent similar injustice or hardship being caused in the future;
and a copy of the further report shall be sent to each of the persons to whom a copy of the report under section 14A(1) was sent.

(5) Where the Assembly First Secretary receives a copy of a further report, he shall send a copy of it to any Assembly Secretary who is accountable to the Assembly (in accordance with section 56 of the Government of Wales Act 1998) for the exercise of any functions of the Assembly relating to the National Health Service.

(6) Where the Assembly First Secretary receives a copy of a further report arising from an investigation relating to the Assembly, he shall also—
(a) lay a copy of it before the Assembly, and
(b) (unless action to the satisfaction of the Health Service Commissioner for Wales has been taken or proposed) give to the Assembly notice of his intention to move that the Assembly resolve to approve the recommendations specified in it.

(7) The standing orders of the Assembly must make provision for any motion of which notice has been given pursuant to subsection (6)(b) to be moved as soon as is reasonably practicable (unless action to the satisfaction of the Health Service Commissioner for Wales has been taken or proposed).]

The salary payable to a holder of the office of a Commissioner shall be abated by the amount of any pension payable to him in respect of any public office in the United Kingdom or elsewhere to which he has previously been appointed or elected.

(1) Where a person holds—
(a) the office of Parliamentary Commissioner, and
(b) either or both of the offices of Health Service Commissioner, he shall, so long as he does so, be entitled only to the salary pertaining to the office of Parliamentary Commissioner.

(2) Where a person holds both of the offices of Health Service Commissioner he shall, so long as he does so, be entitled only to the salary pertaining to such one of those offices as he selects.

Schedule 1 to the Parliamentary Commissioner Act 1967 (which relates to pensions and other benefits) has effect with respect to persons who hold or have held office as a Commissioner as it has effect with respect to persons who hold or have held office as the Parliamentary Commissioner.

In computing the salary of a former holder of the office of Commissioner for the purposes of Schedule 1 to the 1967 Act, there shall be disregarded—
(a) any abatement of that salary under paragraph 5,
(b) any temporary abatement of that salary in the national interest, and
(c) any voluntary surrender of that salary in whole or in part.

(1) In this paragraph, “relevant office” means the office of Parliamentary Commissioner or any of the offices of Health Service Commissioner.

(2) The Treasury may by regulations provide that Schedule 1 to the Parliamentary Commissioner Act 1967 shall have effect, in relation to persons who have held more than one relevant office, with such modifications as it considers necessary in consequence of those persons having held more than one such office; and different regulations may be made in pursuance of paragraph 4 of Schedule 1 to the 1967 Act in relation to different relevant offices.
(3) A person shall not be entitled to make simultaneously different elections in pursuance of paragraph 1 or 2 of Schedule 1 to the 1967 Act in respect of different relevant offices.

(4) Where a person has made or is treated as having made an election in pursuance of paragraph 1 or 2 of Schedule 1 to the 1967 Act in respect of any relevant office, he shall be deemed to have made the same election in respect of all such other offices to which he is, or is subsequently, appointed.

(5) No account shall be taken for the purposes of Schedule 1 to the 1967 Act of a period of service in a relevant office if salary in respect of the office was not paid for that period.

(6) Regulations under this paragraph may make such incidental or supplementary provision as the Treasury considers necessary.

(7) Regulations under this paragraph shall be made by statutory instrument which shall be subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament.
