1. The conditions of payment for work laid down in the Law on Remuneration of State Politicians and State Officers shall apply to the Chairman, Deputy Chairmen and members of the Central Electoral Commission.

2. At the end of each year the Chairman, Deputy Chairmen and members of the Central Electoral Commission shall, for the overtime work, work on rest days and public holidays, be paid a single allowance not exceeding the amount of their basic salaries as set by the Law on Remuneration of State Politicians and State Officers. It shall be paid without exceeding the remuneration funds appropriated for the Central Electoral Commission. If such funds are not sufficient, also if the Chairman, Deputy Chairman or a member of the Central Electoral Commission has not worked there the whole year, an allowance shall be calculated proportionally to the possessed remuneration funds or the time actually worked during that year. The Central Electoral Commission shall fix a concrete amount of allowances for the Chairman, Deputy Chairman and each member of the Commission.

3. Severance pay in the amount of their basic salary for 2 months shall be paid to the Chairman and members of the Central Electoral Commission who are dismissed from the Commission on the grounds established in points 1, 5 and 7 of Article 10(1) of this Law.

4. The provisions of paragraph 3 of this Article shall not apply where the Chairman or a member of the Commission is appointed to a newly formed Central Electoral Commission.

Article 18. Secretariat of the Central Electoral Commission

1. The Central Electoral Commission shall have its secretariat. The employees of the secretariat shall be public servants to whom the Law on Public Service applies.

2. The structure of the secretariat, positions and regulations of activities shall be approved by the Central Electoral Commission.

Article 19. Regulations of the Central Electoral Commission

Procedure for organising the work of the Central Electoral Commission, electing Commission Chairman, Deputy Chairmen and secretary, convening meetings, and procedures therein, clerical work and other issues shall be established by the Regulations of the Central Electoral Commission. The Central Electoral Commission shall approve it.

Article 20. Financing of the Central Electoral Commission

1. The Central Electoral Commission shall be a budgetary agency maintained from state budgetary funds.

2. The manager of state budgetary appropriations assigned to the Central Electoral Commission shall be the Chairman of the Central Electoral Commission. His rights, duties and responsibility when managing, using, including into accounting the state budgetary appropriations assigned for the Central Electoral Commission shall be established by law.

Article 21. Final Provisions

1. This Law shall come into force on 1 August 2002.

2. Upon the coming into force of this Law, the powers of the Central Electoral Commission set up prior to the coming into force of this Law shall continue until a new Central Electoral Commission shall be composed in compliance with Article 7 of this Law.
