CHAPTER V. PROCEDURE FOR VOTING AND DETERMINATION OF THE ELECTION RESULTS

Article 30. Time and place of voting

Voting shall be conducted from 6 a.m. to 8 p.m. on the day of elections. Precinct electoral commission shall inform voters about the time and place of voting no later than ten days prior to the election.

In the polling stations established at the Missions of the Republic of Uzbekistan in foreign countries, at the military units, resorts and treatment centers, hospitals and boarding medical centers as well as in the remote and hard-to-reach areas, in places of detention the precinct electoral commissions may declare voting closed at any time in case all voters included in the voter list have voted.

Article 31. Voting Procedure ~~Organization of voting~~

Voting shall be conducted in designated premises equipped with the sufficient number of booths or rooms for secret vote, with distribution point of the ballots, and installed ballot boxes. Ballot boxes shall be installed so that the voters shall first pass by the booths or rooms for secret voting before approaching them.

Precinct electoral commissions shall be responsible for the organization of voting, ensuring the secrecy of voters' will, equipping the premises and maintaining due order therein.

The ballot boxes shall be checked, sealed or stamped by the chair of the precinct electoral commission in the presence of all members of the commission before starting of the voting on the day of election.

Every voter shall vote personally; voting on behalf of other persons shall not be permitted. Ballots shall be given by the respective electoral commission on the basis of the voter list of the polling precinct upon presentation of the passport or other document of personal identity. Every voter shall sign opposite his/her family name in the voter list confirming the receipt of the ballot.

A voter who is unable to be on election day at their place of residence, has the right to early voting.

Early voting begins ten days prior to election day and ends on the day prior to election day. The timing of early voting is determined by the precinct election commission and shall be brought to the attention of voters, observers, representatives of mass media.

In order to vote earlier, a voter should provide a reasonable excuse for his or her absence on election day (vacation, business trip, trip abroad, etc.) in written form and after that the voter will receive a ballot at the precinct election commission of his or her residence. In the presence of at least two PEC members, the voter should sign the voters list evidencing that he or she received a ballot. The ballot is marked by the voter in a specially equipped booth or room for secret voting.

The voter makes a choice and inserts the marked ballot in a sealed envelope in the precinct election commission. Two members of the precinct election commission sign the glued part of the envelope, stamp it with a seal of the commission and the voter signs a confirmation.

The form and procedure for production of the ballots, as well as delivery time of ballots to the polling stations will be established by the Central Election Commission.

In cases where individual voters due to health or other reasons cannot arrive at the polling station, the precinct election commission, upon request, instructs the commission members to organize voting in the place of stay of these voters.

Voters, not included in the voter list for any reasons, shall be included to the addendum to the voter list based on the document proving the identity and place of residence.

Article 32. Voting procedure

The ballot shall be marked by the voters in the booth or room for secret voting. Presence of persons other than the voter at the time of marking the ballots shall be prohibited. A voter unable to mark the ballot himself may invite at his discretion another person to the booth or room, except the members of the electoral commission, observers and authorized persons of the candidates.

The voter shall mark in the empty square on the right side of the ballot against the family name of the candidate for whom s/he is voting.

The voter shall cast the marked ballot in the ballot box.

Article 33. Counting votes at the polling station

Counting of the votes at the polling station shall be performed by the precinct electoral commission for each candidate separately.

At the end of voting and prior to opening ballot boxes, in the presence of all members of the precinct commission, sealed envelopes with the voter list shall be dropped in the boxes.

The ballot boxes shall be opened by the precinct electoral commission in the presence of all members thereof after the announcement of the end of voting by the chair of the commission. Opening of the ballot boxes before the end of voting shall be prohibited. All unused ballots shall be counted and invalidated by the precinct electoral commission before opening of the ballot boxes.

The Precinct electoral commission shall determine the total numbers of voters in the precinct and the number of voters who have received a ballot according to the main voter list and addendum hereto. Based on ballots and voter lists in the ballot boxes, the commission shall define: the total number of voters who participated in the voting; the number of votes entered for each candidate; the number of ballots and voter lists that were deemed as invalid. Votes cast for names added by voters themselves to the ballots and to the voter lists shall not be counted.

Ballots and voter lists in unapproved format as well as ballots and voter lists where the mark was entered in more than one square or was absent in any of them shall be deemed as invalid. In case of dispute over the authenticity of ballot or voter list, this issue shall be resolved by the precinct electoral commission by means of voting.

The results of the vote count shall be reviewed in the meeting of the precinct electoral commission and recorded in the protocol.

The protocol shall be signed by the chair, deputy chair, secretary and the members of the commission and submitted to the respective district electoral commission in the order established by the Central Electoral Commission.

Article 34. Determination of the election results in the district

Based on the protocols of the precinct electoral commissions, the district electoral commission shall define: the total number of voters in the district, the number of voters who received ballots and voter lists; the number of voters who participated in the voting; the number of votes entered for each candidate; the number of ballots and voter lists that were deemed as invalid.

Election results in the district shall be determined in the meeting of the electoral commission and recorded in the protocol. The protocol shall be signed by the chair, deputy chair, secretary and the members of the commission and submitted to the Central Electoral Commission in due order.

Article 35. Determination of the results on the elections of the President of the Republic of Uzbekistan

The Central Election Commission based on the protocols delivered by the precinct election commissions shall determine the total number of voters in the republic; the number of voters who received ballots and lists; the number of voters who participated in voting; the number of votes cast for each candidate; the number of invalid ballots.

In case of two candidates running in the election of President of the Republic of Uzbekistan, the candidate who received the relatively majority of votes of the voters that participated in the voting, shall be considered as elected.

In case of more than two candidates running in the election of President of the Republic of Uzbekistan and if none of them receives more than half of the votes of the voters who participated in the voting, repeated voting shall be conducted with participation of the two candidates who have received the highest numbers of votes.

In case of one candidate only running in the election of President of the Republic of Uzbekistan due to various reasons (death of a candidate, health condition of a candidate that exclude the participation in the election, or withdrawal of a candidate for other reasons established in the Law etc.), the candidate who has received more than half of the votes of the voters participating in the voting shall be considered as elected.

Elections shall be considered invalid, if less than 33 (thirty three) percent of the voters included in the voter lists participated.

Article 36. About determination of the results on the elections of the President of the Republic of Uzbekistan

Elections in total or in some districts or in individual precincts may be invalidated due to violations committed in the course of voting or vote counting that affected the outcome of the election. The decision to declare an election invalid shall be made by the Central Electoral Commission and may be appealed to the Supreme Court of the Republic of Uzbekistan within ten days after publication of the election results. The right to appeal the decision on recognizing elections as invalid is vested in the candidates for President of the Republic of Uzbekistan.

Should elections in individual districts or precincts be invalidated according to the decision of the Central Electoral Commission, the voting results on such district shall be excluded from the overall election results, provided that elections without these results may be deemed conducted.

Information on the results of the election of the President of the Republic of Uzbekistan shall be published in the press by the Central Electoral Commission no later than ten days after the election.

Article 37. Second round

The Central Electoral Commission shall appoint the date for a second round within one month after holding elections, but not earlier than fifteen days after the election. The announcement on holding a second round shall be published in press.

The candidate, who has received most votes of the voters that participated in the voting, in the course of the second round, compared to another candidate, shall be deemed as elected.

The voter turnout requirement shall not be applicable in the second round.

Article 38. Repeated elections

In case the election of the President of the Republic of Uzbekistan is deemed invalid or void, as well as if only one candidate run in the election of the President of the Republic of Uzbekistan and s/he did not receive the required number of votes, the Central Electoral Commission shall designate a repeated election. The repeated election of the President of the Republic of Uzbekistan shall be conducted in the same procedure and in compliance with the same conditions as for the holding of main elections established by the present Law. In this case, the Central Electoral Commission may make a decision on the necessity to conduct the election with new composition of the district and precinct electoral commissions. Voting shall be conducted in the same polling precincts and with the voter lists prepared for the main elections.

The repeated election shall be conducted within 40 days after main elections.

Article 39. Assumption of the office of the President of the Republic of Uzbekistan

The President of the Republic of Uzbekistan shall assume office upon taking an oath in the meeting of the Oliy Majlis of the Republic of Uzbekistan no later than two months after the official announcement by the Central Electoral Commission of the results of the election for the President of the Republic of Uzbekistan.

The incumbent President of the Republic of Uzbekistan shall exercise his/her powers until the assumption of office by the newly-elected President of the Republic of Uzbekistan.
