4. Public bodies and officials are obligated to present to the People's Advocate all documents and information requested by him.

PART THREE THE ASSEMBLY

CHAPTER I ELECTION AND TERM

Article 64

~~1. The Assembly consists of 140 deputies. One hundred deputies are elected directly in single-member electoral zones with an approximate number of voters. Forty deputies are elected from the multi-name lists of parties or party coalitions according to their respective order.~~

~~2. The total number of deputies of a party or a party coalition shall be, to the closest possible extent, proportional to the valid votes won by them on the national scale in the first round of elections.~~

~~3. Parties that receive less than 2.5 per cent, and party coalitions that receive less than 4 per cent, of the valid votes on the national scale in the first round of elections do not benefit from their respective multi-name lists.~~

1. Assembly is composed of 140 deputies, elected on proportional system with multi-names electoral zones.

2. The multi-name electoral zone corresponds to the administrative division of one of the levels of the administrative-territorial organization.

3. Criteria and rules on the implementation of the proportional electoral system, on the determination of electoral zones and on the number of seats to be obtained in each electoral zone shall be defined by the law on elections.

Article 65

~~1. The Assembly is elected for four years.~~

~~2. Elections for the Assembly are held within 60 to 30 days before the end of the mandate and not later than 45 days after its dissolution.~~

~~3. The mandate of the Assembly continues until the first meeting of the new Assembly. In this interval, the Assembly may not issue laws or take decisions, except when extraordinary measures have been established.~~

1. The Assembly is elected every four years. The mandate of the Assembly starts with its first meeting after the elections and ends on the same date, of the same month of the fourth year from the date of the first meeting. In any case, the Assembly remains on duty until the first meeting of the newly elected Assembly.

2. Elections for the new Assembly are held in the nearest electoral period that precedes the date of the ending of the mandate of the Assembly. Electoral periods and the rules for holding the elections for the Assembly are determined by the law on elections.

3. If the Assembly is dissolved prior to the ending of its full mandate, elections are held no later than 45 days after its dissolution.

4. The Assembly may not approve laws during the period 60 days prior to the termination of its mandate until the first meeting of the new Assembly, except in cases when extraordinary measures have been imposed.”

Article 66

The mandate of the Assembly is extended only in the case of war and for so long as it continues. When the Assembly is dissolved, it recalls itself.

Article 67

~~1. The newly elected Assembly is called to its first meeting by the President of the Republic no later than 20 days from the conclusion of the elections.~~

~~2. If the President of the Republic does not exercise this power, the Assembly must convene itself within 10 days from the end of the term provided in paragraph 1 of this article.~~

1. The President of the Republic convenes the newly elected Assembly not earlier than the date of the termination of the mandate of the preceding Assembly, but no later than 10 days after such mandate has expired. If the preceding Assembly has been dissolved before the ending of its mandate, the President of the Republic convenes the new Assembly not later than 10 days since the announcement of the election results.

2. If the President of the Republic does not exercise such a competence, the Assembly convenes itself on the tenth day of the period of time provided in point 1 of this Article.

CHAPTER II--THE DEPUTIES

Article 68

~~1. Candidates for deputy may be presented only by political parties, coalitions of parties, and voters.~~

~~2. The rules for the designation of candidates for deputy, for the organization and conduct of the elections, as well as the definition of electoral zones and the conditions of validity for elections, are regulated by the electoral law.~~

1. Candidates for deputies shall be presented at the level of the electoral zone by political parties, electoral coalitions of political parties as well as by voters. A candidate may be presented by only one of the proposing subjects according to this section. The ranking of the candidates in the multi-name lists may not be changed after the submission of the list to the respective electoral commission. The rules for the registration of the candidates for deputies are determined by the law on elections.

2. The law on elections shall also determine other necessary criteria and rules on the organization and conduct of elections, including those on registration of voters, conduct of electoral campaign, administration and validity of elections and declaration of their results.

Article 69

1. Without resigning from duty, the following may not run as candidates nor be elected deputies:

a) judges, prosecutors;

b) military servicemen on active duty;

c) police and National Security employees;

ç) diplomatic representatives;

d)-mayors and heads of communes as well as prefects in the places where they carry out their duties;

dh) chairmen and members of the electoral commissions;

e) the President of the Republic and the high officials of the State Administration AS as provided by law.

2. A mandate gained in violation of paragraph 1 of this article is invalid.

Article 70

1. Deputies represent the people and are not bound by any obligatory mandate.

2. Deputies may not simultaneously exercise any other public duty with the exception of that of a member of the Council of Ministers. Other cases of incompatibility are specified by law.

3. Deputies may not carry out any profit-making activity that stems from the property of the state or of local government, nor may they profit from this property.

4. For every violation of paragraph 3 of this article, on the motion of the chairman of the Assembly or one-tenth of its members, the Assembly decides on sending the issue to the Constitutional Court, which determines the incompatibility.

Article 71

1. The mandate of the deputy begins on the day when he is declared elected by the respective electoral commission.

2. The mandate of the deputy ends or is invalid, as the case may be:

a) when he does not take the oath;

b) when he resigns from the mandate;

c) when one of the conditions of ineluctability provided for in articles 69, and 70, paragraphs 2 and 3 is ascertained;

ç) when the mandate of the Assembly ends;

d) when he is absent for more than six consecutive months in the Assembly without reason.

dh) when he is convicted by a final court decision for commitment of a crime.

Article 72

Before beginning the exercise of the mandate, the deputies take the oath in the Assembly.

Article 73

~~1. A deputy does not bear responsibility for opinions expressed in the Assembly and votes given. This provision is not applicable in the case of defamation.~~

~~2. A deputy may not be criminally prosecuted without the authorization of the Assembly. Authorization is also required when he is to be arrested.~~

~~3. A deputy may be detained or arrested without authorization when he is apprehended during or immediately after the commission of a serious crime. In these cases, the General Prosecutor immediately notifies the Assembly, which, when it determines that the proceeding is misplaced, decides to lift the measure.~~

~~4. For issues contemplated in paragraphs 2 and 3, the Assembly decides by secret vote.~~

- ~~2. The President of the Republic is elected by secret vote and without debate by the Assembly by a majority of three-fifths of all its members.~~
- ~~3. When this majority is not reached in the first voting, a second voting takes place within 7 days from the day of the first voting.~~

~~4. When this majority is not reached even in the second voting, a third voting takes place within 7 days.~~

~~5. When there is more than one candidate and none of them has received the required majority, within 7 days, a fourth voting takes place between the two candidates who have received the greatest number of votes.~~

~~6. If even in the fourth voting neither of the two candidates has received the required majority, a fifth one takes place.~~

~~7. If even in the fifth voting neither of the two candidates has received the required majority, the Assembly is dissolved and new general elections take place within 60 days.~~

~~8. The new Assembly elects the President pursuant to the procedure contemplated by paragraphs 1 to 7 of this article. If even the new Assembly does not elect the President, the Assembly is dissolved and new general elections take place within 60 days.~~

~~9. The subsequent Assembly elects the President of the Republic by a majority of all its members.~~

~~“1. The candidate for President is proposed to the Assembly by a group of not less than 20 MPs. One MP is not allowed to propose more than one candidate at the same time.~~

~~2. The President of the Republic is elected by secret vote and without debate by the Assembly. The Assembly conducts up to five voting rounds for the election of the President.~~

~~The first voting takes place not later than seven days from the beginning of the procedure for the election of the President. Each of the other voting takes place not later than seven days from the unsuccessful completion of the preceding voting. A voting is deemed as completed even when no candidates are running in the competition. New candidates may run in the second, third and fourth voting, in accordance with the conditions of point 1 of this article.~~

~~3. The President is elected in the first, second or third voting when one candidate receives not less than three fifths of the votes of all the members of the Assembly. In the fourth and fifth voting, the candidate that receives more than half of the votes of all the members of the Assembly is elected President.~~

~~4. The fifth voting takes place when none of the candidates receive the required majority of votes in the fourth voting. The fifth voting takes place only between the two candidates who have received the highest number of votes in the fourth voting. If there are more than two candidates with the same number of votes, the candidate who will run in the voting shall be determined by lot.~~

~~If, after the fourth voting, there are no candidates left to compete, new candidates may run in this voting in accordance with the conditions of point 1 of this article. If more than two candidates are proposed to run, the voting takes place between the two candidates that have ensured the highest number of the proposing MPs.~~

5. If, even after the fifth voting none of the candidates has received the required majority of votes, or if after the unsuccessful completion of the fourth voting no new candidates are proposed, the Assembly is dissolved. The new elections take place within 45 days from its dissolution.

6. The subsequent Assembly elects the President of the Republic by a majority of all its members.”

Article 88

1. The President of the Republic is in every case elected for 5 years, with the right of re-election only once.

~~2. The procedure for the election of the President begins no later than 30 days before the end of the previous presidential mandate.~~

2. The mandate expires on the same date of the same month of the fifth year from the date the President of the Republic takes his oath. The mandate of the President is extended only in case of war, and for as long as the war continues.

~~2/1. The procedure for the election of the President begins not later than 60 days before the termination of the preceding presidential mandate. When the presidential mandate ends during the six months preceding the end of the mandate of the existing Assembly, the procedure for the election of the President starts no later than 60 days prior to the ending of the mandate of the Assembly.~~

3. The President begins his duties after he takes the oath before the Assembly, but not before the mandate of the President who is leaving has been completed. The President swears as follows:

"I swear that I will obey to the Constitution and laws of the country, that I will respect the rights and freedoms of citizens, protect the independence of the Republic, and I will serve the general interest and the progress of the Albanian People." The President may add: "So help me God!"

Article C

General provisions for the Commission and Appeal Chamber

1. The Independent Qualification Commission shall consist of four permanent panels having three members each.

2. Two Public Commissioners shall represent the public interest and may file appeals against the decisions of the Commission.

3. The Commission and the Special Appeal Chamber shall both operate with accountability, integrity and transparency and with the objective of promoting an independent and competent system of justice free from corruption. During their mandate, the members of the Commission and Public Commissioners shall have the status of the member of the High Court. The Appeal Chamber judges shall have the status of judges of the Constitutional Court and their mandate shall not be subject to age limit, unless provided otherwise by the law.

4. Members of the Commission and judges of the Appeal Chamber, the Public Commissioners and other employees of these institutions shall sign a written declaration, under the law, authorising the annual audit of their assets, constant monitoring of their financial accounts and waiver of the privacy of their communication throughout the duration of their stay in office. All asset declarations shall become public.

5. Members of the Commission and the judges of the Appeal Chamber shall have a university degree in law, and no less than fifteen years' experience as a judge, prosecutor, law professor, advocate, notary, senior lawyer in public administration, or other legal profession related to the justice sector. Candidates for member of the Commission and judges at the Appeal Chamber may not have been judges, prosecutors or legal advisors or legal assistants in the past two years prior to their nomination. The candidates should not have held political posts in the public administration or leadership positions in a political party for the past 10 years before running as a candidate.

6. The President of the Republic of Albania shall conduct an open and transparent application process for the positions of the members in the Independent Qualification Commission, judges of the Special Appeal Chamber and Public Commissioners. All candidates shall send applications and all declarations in accordance with the law to the President. Within 7 days from the deadline for the submission of applications, the President shall compile a candidate list of applicants who meet the formal criteria for each position and a separate list of applicants who do not meet the formal criteria. This process is monitored by the International Monitoring Operation. If the President cannot complete the process within 45 days of the entry into force of this Annex, the duty shall revert to the People's Advocate.

7. A commission composed of at least three representatives of the International Monitoring Operation (IMO) shall assess the candidates, in accordance with the law. Not later than 14 days from the day of submission of the 2 lists by the President, the Commission shall, on the basis of its assessment, submit its recommendations to the President, who then forwards them to the Parliament. If the President cannot exercise his competences within 5 days, the competence shall revert to the People's Advocate.

8. Within three days of receiving the list of applicants who meet the formal criteria, the list of applicants who do not meet the formal criteria and the list of IMO recommendations, the Assembly shall create an ad hoc committee with six members consisting of equal representatives from the majority and opposition. The committee may with at least four votes move a candidate from the list of those who do not meet formal criteria to the list of those who do. The committee may with at least five votes move an applicant from the IMO's recommendations list to the candidate list for voting. Within ten days of its establishment, the ad hoc committee shall forward the candidate list for voting for each position to the ad hoc committees for selection. The other two lists shall not be forwarded for voting.

9. The Assembly shall establish within ten days two ad hoc committees for selection consisting of equal representatives from the parliamentary majority and opposition, one committee with 12 members and one committee with 6 members.

10. Within 30 days of the establishment of the ad hoc committee, each member of the 12 member committee shall select, from the candidate list for voting, a candidate for commissioner, without debate and in a secret and electronic vote that ensures that one member may elect one candidate. The committee shall then select two candidates from the candidate list for voting for public commissioner, using a simple vote where the two candidates with the most votes are selected. In case of a tie, a lot shall be used. Two alternate members for each position shall be selected in the same manner used for the Public Commissioner.

11. Within 30 days of the establishment of the ad hoc committee, each member of the 6 member committee shall select from the candidate list for voting a candidate for judges of the Special Appeal Chamber, without debate and in a secret and electronic vote that ensures that one member may elect one candidate. The committee shall then select the seventh judge from the remaining candidates on the candidate list for voting, using a simple vote where the candidate with the most votes is selected. In case of a tie, a lot shall be used. Two alternate judges for each position shall be selected in the same manner used for the seventh judge.

12. The selections from the two ad hoc committees are consolidated into one list and sent to the Speaker of the Assembly. Within ten days, the Assembly shall approve the entire list of candidates as a block by a majority of three-fifths. If the Assembly fails to approve the list of candidates as a block, the Speaker of the Assembly shall send it to the ad hoc committees to repeat their selection process and submit a second list within 10 days. Within ten days, the Assembly may reject the entire list of candidates as a block by a majority of two-thirds. If the list is not rejected, those selected shall be considered appointed. The details of this procedure are regulated by law.

13. Members of the Independent Qualification Commission, judges of the Special Appeal Chamber and Public Commissioners shall work full time and may not hold any other position or employment during their mandate.

14. The Commission, the Appeal Chamber and the Public Commissioners shall have a budget, staff and facilities sufficient to support their duties and the duties of the international observers, in accordance with the law.

15. The official languages of the Commission, the Appeal Chamber and Public Commissioners shall be Albanian and English. Both bodies shall employ translators and interpreters for this purpose.

16. Members of the Commission, judges of the Appeal Chamber and Public Commissioners are subject to disciplinary liability. Cases of disciplinary misconduct shall be reviewed by the Appeal Chamber, in accordance with the law.

17. Members of the Commission, judges of the Appeal Chamber, Public Commissioners, international observers, the administration staff, and their families shall be guaranteed protection of the highest level in accordance with the law.

Article Ç Re-evaluation

1. The re-evaluation will include an Asset Assessment, a Background Assessment and a Proficiency Assessment under Article D, DH, and E of this Annex and the law.

2. The Commission and Appeal Chamber publish their decisions and any other required information obtained from the public. These bodies shall take into account the information from the public observing the principle of proportionality between privacy and investigation needs, and shall guarantee the right to a fair trial.

3. Official bodies of the Republic of Albania shall cooperate with the Commission and Appeal Chamber by putting at their disposal the information required and granting direct access to their databases. They may provide opinions and concrete proposals in accordance with the law.

4. The Commission or the Appeal Chamber, where appropriate, through their staff, the Public Commissioners or the international observers, shall review the assessee's completed background declarations, may interview people named in the declaration or other persons, and shall seek cooperation with other state or foreign institutions to confirm the veracity and accuracy of the disclosure. The Commission, the Appeal Chamber and the international observers shall have direct access to all relevant government databases and files, except for those classified as “state secret”, including the assessee’s personal files, statistical data, files selected for evaluation, self-evaluations, opinions of supervisors, training records and complaints, verification of complaints, disciplinary decisions against the assessee, data on the assessee’s property, bank accounts, tax records, car registration data bases, data on entry and exits at the border as well as any other relevant documents. The Commission or the Appeal Chamber may order private individuals and companies to provide testimony or evidence in accordance with the law.

5. The shift of the burden of proof to the assessee applies only for this assessment excluding any other process, in particular, criminal proceedings.

Article D Asset Assessment

1. Assessee shall be subject to declaration and audit of their assets with the purpose of identifying assessee, who possess or have the use of assets greater than it can be legitimately explained, or those assessee who have failed to accurately and fully disclose their assets and those of their related persons.

2. Assessee shall submit a new and fully detailed asset declaration in accordance with the law. The High Inspectorate for the Declaration and Audit of Assets and Conflict of Interests shall audit the asset declaration and submit to the Commission a report about the legitimacy of the assets and the accuracy and fullness of the disclosure, in accordance with the law.

3. The assessee has to credibly explain the lawful origin of assets, property and income. Income shall only be considered legitimate if it has been declared and taxes have been paid. Other elements of the legitimate property shall be defined by law.

4. If the assessee has assets greater than twice the amount of the legitimate property, he or she shall be presumed guilty of disciplinary misconduct, unless he or she presents evidence to prove the contrary.

5. If the assessee has not submitted the asset declaration in time in accordance with the law, he or she shall be dismissed from office. If the assessee takes steps to inaccurately disclose or hide assets in his or her ownership, possession or use, a presumption for the disciplinary measure of dismissal shall be established which the assessee shall have the burden to dispel.

Article DH Background Assessment

1. Assessee shall be required to submit a background declaration and be subject to a background assessment with the purpose of identifying the assessee with inappropriate contacts with persons involved in organized crime. The background assessment on persons involved in organized crime will be based on the background declaration and other evidence as appropriate, including Albanian or foreign court decisions.

2. Assessee shall submit a duly filled-in detailed background declaration to the Commission for the period January 1, 2012 to the day of the declaration, as regulated by law. The completed background declaration can only be used as evidence in this procedure and in no case in a criminal proceedings.

3. If the assessee has inappropriate contacts with persons involved in organized crime, a presumption for the disciplinary measure of dismissal shall be established, which the assessee shall have the burden to dispel.

4. If the assessee does not submit the duly completed background declaration in time in accordance with the law, he or she shall be dismissed. If the assessee takes steps to inaccurately disclose or hide contacts with persons involved in the organized crime, a presumption for the disciplinary measure of dismissal shall be established, which the assessee shall have the burden to dispel.

Article E Proficiency Assessment

1. Assessee shall be subject to a proficiency assessment, with the purpose of identifying those who are not qualified to perform their role and those who have professional deficiencies which can be remedied through education.

2. The Proficiency Assessment shall be conducted with the assistance of the officials in charge of the ethical and professional evaluation of judges or prosecutors at the time of the assessment. The Proficiency Assessment for judges, legal advisors or legal assistants shall assess judicial capacity, organizational skills, ethics and commitment to judicial values, personal quality and professional commitment, based on standards provided by law. The Proficiency Assessment for prosecutors shall assess prosecutorial capacity, organizational skills, ethics and commitment to prosecutorial values, personal quality and professional commitment based on standards provided by law. The Proficiency Assessment for legal advisors or legal assistance includes a test at the School of Magistrate. The Proficiency Assessment shall not consider pending cases.

3. If the assessee has demonstrated poor knowledge, skill, judgment, or aptitude, or there is a pattern of work which is non-compliable with his/her position, then it shall be considered as professional deficiency and a presumption for the disciplinary measure of suspension shall be established coupled with an obligation to attend the education program, which the assessee shall have the burden to dispel.

4. If the assessee has demonstrated inadequate knowledge, skill, judgment, or aptitude, or there is a pattern of work which is non-compliable with his/her position, and the noticed deficiency is unlikely to be remedied through the one year education program, a presumption for the disciplinary measure of dismissal shall be established, which the assessee shall have the burden to dispel.

5. If the assessee acts to substantially prevent or confound his or her assessment, or has demonstrated such insufficient knowledge, skill, judgment, aptitude, or a pattern of work so weak that it endangers or violates the rights of citizens, the assessee shall be considered inconvenient to perform the duty. In this case, a presumption for the disciplinary measure of dismissal shall be established, which the assessee shall have the burden to dispel.

Article E Disciplinary Measures

1. The Commission or the Appeal Chamber, after reviewing the matter, determines disciplinary measures, the assessee's suspension from duty for one year coupled with compulsory education or his/her dismissal from office. In any case, the decision shall be reasoned.

2. A decision ordering suspension from duty coupled with an obligation to attend the education program shall identify the assessee's deficiencies. During the suspension period, the assessee shall be entitled to 75 % of the relevant salary. The assessee shall be ordered to attend a one year education program to the School of Magistrates, which is designed to remedy the deficiencies. At the end of the education program, the assessee shall be tested on his skills. This testing shall be overseen by the International Monitoring Operation. The Commission shall dismiss the assessee failing to pass the test.

3. In any case, the dismissal of a judge or prosecutor does not constitute a ground for the re-opening of cases decided or prosecuted by the assessee, except in the cases based on which a review can be requested according to the procedural codes.

Article F

Appeal Chamber

1. The Appeal Chamber shall consist of seven judges and it is the only judicial body that considers appeals against the decisions of the Commission in accordance with the Annex and the law. The Chamber decides in panels composed of five members each.

2. The assessee and the Public Commissioners, under the law, may file an appeal to this Chamber against the decisions of the Commission, except for decisions made under Article E, paragraph 2, of the Annex.

3. The Appeal Chamber may require the collection of facts or evidence and remedy any procedural errors committed by the Commission taking into account the assessee's fundamental rights. The Appeal Chamber shall decide the case and may not transfer the case back to the Commission. This constitutional jurisdiction does not allow to call into question the constitutionality of the principles on which the re-evaluation process is based on, and as such, it is based and the criteria set forth in this law.

4. The international observer at the Appeal Chamber enjoys the same rights as the international observer at the Commission.

5. During the examination of the appeal, the assessee shall be paid 75 percent of the salary. In case the Chamber accepts the appeal by annulling the decision of the Commission, the part of 25 percent of the salary shall be paid to the assessee for the entire period of interruption. A final decision ordering dismissal from office has ex lege immediate effect.

6. An assessee filing an appeal against the disciplinary measure of dismissal shall be suspended from duty pending the decision of the Appeal Chamber.

7. The Appeal Chamber shall uphold, modify or overrule the decision of the Commission giving a reasoned written decision. In cases of appeals by the Public Commissioners, the Chamber may not impose a more severe disciplinary measure, without providing the assessee with sufficient time to prepare and be heard in a hearing.

8. Assesseees may exercise the right of appeal to the European Court of Human Rights.

Article G Resignation

1. An assessee may resign from office, and in this case, the re-evaluation process is terminated.

2 An assessee who resigns under this provision may no longer be appointed as a judge or prosecutor at any level, as a member of the High Judicial Council or High Prosecutorial Council, High Justice Inspector, or Prosecutor General for a duration of fifteen years.
