3. The other (referred to in this Act as an “electoral region vote”) is a vote which may be given for—
 - a. a registered political party which has submitted a list of candidates to be Assembly regional members for the Assembly electoral region in which the Assembly constituency is included, or
 - b. an individual who is a candidate to be an Assembly regional member for that Assembly electoral region.
4. The Assembly constituency member for the Assembly constituency is to be returned under the simple majority system.
5. The Assembly regional members for the Assembly electoral region are to be returned under the additional member system of proportional representation provided for in this Part.
6. In this Act “registered political party” means a party registered under Part 2 of the Political Parties, Elections and Referendums Act 2000 (c. 41).

7. Candidates at general elections

1. At a general election a person may not be a candidate to be the Assembly constituency member for more than one Assembly constituency.
2. Any registered political party may submit a list of candidates for return as Assembly regional members for a particular Assembly electoral region at a general election.
3. The list must be submitted to the regional returning officer.
4. The list must not include more than twelve persons (but may include only one).
5. The list must not include a person—

5.
 - a. who is included on any other list submitted for the Assembly electoral region or any list submitted for another Assembly electoral region,
 - b. who is an individual candidate to be an Assembly regional member for the Assembly electoral region or another Assembly electoral region, or
 - c. who is a candidate to be the Assembly constituency member for an Assembly constituency.
6. A person may not be an individual candidate to be an Assembly regional member for the Assembly electoral region if that person is—
 - a. included on a list submitted by a registered political party for the Assembly electoral region or another Assembly electoral region,
 - b. an individual candidate to be an Assembly regional member for another Assembly electoral region, or
 - c. a candidate to be the Assembly constituency member for an Assembly constituency.
7. In this Act “regional returning officer”, in relation to an Assembly electoral region, means the person designated as the regional returning officer for the Assembly electoral region in accordance with an order under section 13.

8. Calculation of electoral region figures

1. This section and section 9 are about the return of Assembly regional members for an electoral region at a general election.
2. The person who is to be returned as the Assembly constituency member for each Assembly constituency in the Assembly electoral region is to be determined before it is determined who are to be returned as the Assembly regional members for the Assembly electoral region.
3. For each registered political party by which a list of candidates has been submitted for the Assembly electoral region—
 - a. there is to be added together the number of electoral region votes given for the party in the Assembly constituencies included in the Assembly electoral region, and
 - b. the number arrived at under paragraph (a) is then to be divided by the aggregate of one and the number of candidates of the party returned as Assembly constituency members for any of those Assembly constituencies.
4. For each individual candidate to be an Assembly regional member for the Assembly electoral region there is to be added together the number of electoral region votes given for the candidate in the Assembly constituencies included in the Assembly electoral region.
5. The number arrived at—
 - a. in the case of a registered political party, under subsection (3)(b), or
 - b. in the case of an individual candidate, under subsection (4), is referred to in this Act as the electoral region figure for that party or individual candidate.

9. Allocation of seats to electoral region members

1. The first seat for the Assembly electoral region is to be allocated to the party or individual candidate with the highest electoral region figure.
2. The second and subsequent seats for the Assembly electoral region are to be allocated to the party or individual candidate with the highest electoral region figure after any recalculation required by subsection (3) has been carried out.
3. This subsection requires a recalculation under paragraph (b) of section 8(3) in relation to a party—
 - a. for the first application of subsection (2), if the application of subsection (1) resulted in the allocation of an Assembly seat to the party, or
 - b. for any subsequent application of subsection (2), if the previous application of that subsection did so,

and a recalculation is to be carried out after adding one to the aggregate mentioned in that paragraph.

4. An individual candidate already returned as an Assembly regional member is to be disregarded.

5. Seats for the Assembly electoral region which are allocated to a party are to be filled by the persons on the party's list in the order in which they appear on the list.
6. Once a party's list has been exhausted by the return of persons included on it as Assembly regional members by the previous application of subsection (1) or (2), the party is to be disregarded.
7. If (on the application of subsection (1) or any application of subsection (2)) the highest electoral region figure is the electoral region figure of two or more parties or individual candidates, the subsection applies to each of them.
8. However, if subsection (7) would mean that more than the full number of seats for the Assembly electoral region were allocated, subsection (1) or (2) does not apply until—
 - a. a recalculation has been carried out under section 8(3)(b) after adding one to the number of votes given for each party with that electoral region figure, and
 - b. one has been added to the number of votes given for each individual candidate with that electoral region figure.
9. If, after that, the highest electoral region figure is still the electoral region figure of two or more parties or individual candidates, the regional returning officer must decide between them by lots.

Subheading 3. Vacancies

10. Constituency vacancies

1. This section applies if the seat of an Assembly constituency member returned for an Assembly constituency is vacant.

4. The date of the poll at the election must be fixed by the Presiding Officer.
5. The date must fall within the period of three months beginning with the occurrence of the vacancy.
6. But if the vacancy does not come to the Presiding Officer's notice within the period of one month beginning with its occurrence, the date must fall within the period of three months beginning when it does come to the Presiding Officer's notice.
7. The election must not be held if it appears to the Presiding Officer that the latest date which may be fixed for the poll would fall within the period of three months ending with the day on which the poll at the next ordinary general election would be held (disregarding section 4).

 - b. is willing to serve as an Assembly regional member for the Assembly electoral region, and

5. But if there is more than one person who satisfies the conditions in subsection (3), the regional returning officer may only notify the name of whichever of them was the higher, or the highest, on that list.
6. A person whose name is notified under subsection (2) is to be treated as having been declared to be returned as an Assembly regional member for the Assembly electoral region on the day on which notification of the person's name is received by the Presiding Officer.
7. The seat remains vacant until the next general election—
 - a. if the Assembly regional member was returned as an individual candidate, or
 - b. if that Assembly regional member was returned from the list of a registered political party but there is no-one who satisfies the conditions in subsection (3).
8. For the purposes of this section, a person included on the list submitted by a registered political party for the last general election who—
 - a. was returned as an Assembly regional member under section 9 at that election (even if the return was void),
 - b. has subsequently been a candidate in an election held under section 10 (whether or not returned), or

3. This subsection requires a recalculation under paragraph (b) of section 8(3) in relation to a party—

and a recalculation is to be carried out after adding one to the aggregate mentioned in that paragraph.

4. An individual candidate already returned as an Assembly regional member is to be disregarded.
5. Seats for the Assembly electoral region which are allocated to a party are to be filled by the persons on the party's list in the order in which they appear on the list.

Preamble

- Motives for writing constitution

An Act to make provision about the dissolution of Parliament and the determination of polling days for parliamentary general elections; and for connected purposes.

[15th September 2011]

- Source of constitutional authority

Be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

- Scheduling of elections

1. Polling days for parliamentary general elections

1. This section applies for the purposes of the Timetable in rule 1 in Schedule 1 to the Representation of the People Act 1983 and is subject to section 2.
2. The polling day for the next parliamentary general election after the passing of this Act is to be 7 May 2015.
3. The polling day for each subsequent parliamentary general election is to be the first Thursday in May in the fifth calendar year following that in which the polling day for the previous parliamentary general election fell.
4. But, if the polling day for the previous parliamentary general election—
 - a. was appointed under section 2(7), and
 - b. in the calendar year in which it fell, fell before the first Thursday in May, subsection (3) has effect as if for “fifth” there were substituted “ fourth ”.
5. The Prime Minister may by order made by statutory instrument provide that the polling day for a parliamentary general election in a specified calendar year is to be later than the day determined under subsection (2) or (3), but not more than two months later.
6. A statutory instrument containing an order under subsection (5) may not be made unless a draft has been laid before and approved by a resolution of each House of Parliament.
7. The draft laid before Parliament must be accompanied by a statement setting out the Prime Minister's reasons for proposing the change in the polling day.

2. The form of motion for the purposes of subsection (1)(a) is—

“That there shall be an early parliamentary general election.”
3. An early parliamentary general election is also to take place if—
 - a. the House of Commons passes a motion in the form set out in subsection (4), and
 - b. the period of 14 days after the day on which that motion is passed ends without the House passing a motion in the form set out in subsection (5).
4. The form of motion for the purposes of subsection (3)(a) is—

“That this House has no confidence in Her Majesty's Government.”
5. The form of motion for the purposes of subsection (3)(b) is—

“That this House has confidence in Her Majesty's Government.”
6. Subsection (7) applies for the purposes of the Timetable in rule 1 in Schedule 1 to the Representation of the People Act 1983.

7. If a parliamentary general election is to take place as provided for by subsection (1) or (3), the polling day for the election is to be the day appointed by Her Majesty by proclamation on the recommendation of the Prime Minister (and, accordingly, the appointed day replaces the day which would otherwise have been the polling day for the next election determined under section 1).

3. Dissolution of Parliament

- Dismissal of the legislature

3. Once Parliament dissolves, the Lord Chancellor and, in relation to Northern Ireland, the Secretary of State have the authority to have the writs for the election sealed and issued (see rule 3 in Schedule 1 to the Representation of the People Act 1983).
4. Once Parliament dissolves, Her Majesty may issue the proclamation summoning the new Parliament which may—
 - a. appoint the day for the first meeting of the new Parliament;

 - a. a Saturday or Sunday;
 - b. a Christmas Eve, Christmas Day or Good Friday;
 - c. a day which is a bank holiday under the Banking and Financial Dealings Act 1971 in any part of the United Kingdom;
 - d. a day appointed for public thanksgiving or mourning.
6. But, if—
 - a. on a day (“the relevant day”) one or more working days are fixed or appointed as bank holidays or days for public thanksgiving or mourning, and
 - b. as a result, the day for the dissolution of a Parliament would (apart from this subsection) be brought forward from what it was immediately before the relevant day to a day that is earlier than 30 days after the relevant day, the day or days in question are to continue to be treated as working days (even if the polling day is subsequently changed).

2. Section 2(2) of the 1998 Act has effect as if, instead of providing for the poll for that election to be held on that date, it provided (subject to sections 2(5) and 3(3) of that Act) for the poll to be held on 5 May 2016 (and section 2(2) has effect in relation to subsequent ordinary general elections accordingly).

2. Section 3(1) of the 2006 Act has effect as if, instead of providing for the poll for that election to be held on that date, it provided (subject to sections 4 and 5(5) of that Act) for the poll to be held on 5 May 2016 (and section 3(1) has effect in relation to subsequent ordinary general elections accordingly).

6. Supplementary provisions

1. This Act does not affect Her Majesty's power to prorogue Parliament.
2. This Act does not affect the way in which the sealing of a proclamation summoning a new Parliament may be authorised; and the sealing of a proclamation to be issued under section 2(7) may be authorised in the same way.
3. The Schedule (which contains consequential amendments etc) has effect.

7. Final provisions
